NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

FIRST DAY.

Auburn, Indiana, Wednesday, April 7, 1915.

In accordance with the plan of the Board of Bishops, the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its Seventy-second session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in the city of Auburn, Indiana, Bishop William F. McDowell, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

At 8:35 A. M., Bishop McDowell called the Conference to order, and announced Hymn No. 146, “Alas and did my Saviour bleed.”

He then, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, conducted the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He then announced a hymn prepared for this Conference session by T. C. Neal,

“Once more we gather in Thy name,” which was sung.

Preston, Henry Lacy.

Transfer.—When the name of C. H. Hickman was called, he was announced transferred to the Oklahoma Conference.

Introduction.—I. Garland Penn, Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society, was introduced, and spoke in the interests of that society.

Fourteenth Question Resumed.—On the resumption of the Fourteenth Question, the character of W. B. Freeland, Superintendent of Richmond District, was passed, and he reported the work of the district. When asked if he had urged the prorating of the ministerial claims and the taking of the benevolences on the different charges, he answered that he had.

When asked by the Bishop if there was anything against any effective elder in his district, he answered that there was nothing against any of them except as shall hereinafter appear.

The following were passed in character and reported their work in accordance with the action of the Conference:

W. M. Hollopeter, B. Kendall, Preston Polhemus, C. H. Smith, M. R. Peirce, R. C. Jones, R. C. Ballard, J. P. Chamness, A. J. Duryee, E. H. Taylor, O. A. Trabue, C. B. Sweeney, J. H. Runkle, H. C. Harmon, U. S. A. Bridge, E. A. Bunner, L. J. Naftzger, J. W. Zerbe, F. P. Morris.

Transfer.—When the name of H. W. Miller was called, he was announced as transferred to the West Wisconsin Conference.

Select Number.—When the name of R. I. Black was called, the District Superintendent reported that a Committee on Preliminary Investigation had suspended him from ministerial functions, and, on his motion, a Select Number was ordered to try the case. The following were constituted the Committee, there being no objections offered to any of them: T. M. Hill, F. A. Hall, R. L. Semans, F. A. LeMaster, C. H. Smith, E. C. Dunn, O. B. Morris, J. T. Bean, and F. H. Cremean.

U. S. A. Bridge was appointed counsel for the Church, and J. H. Runkle was accepted as counsel for the defendant. The Bishop appointed C. U. Wade to preside over the Select Number. The Secretary designated W. A. Griest, one of the assistants, to act as Secretary of the Committee.

Wabash District was called, and the character of M. S. Marble, District Superintendent, was passed, and he reported the work of the district. The Bishop asked him if in every Quarterly Conference he had urged the raising of the benevolences of the Church and the prorating of the ministerial claims; his reply was that he had.

When asked the question if there was anything against any effective elder in his district, he answered that there was nothing against any of them. The following effective elders, having been passed in character, reported their work, in accordance with the action of the Conference:

G. H. Hughes, C. A. Modlin, J. C. Lawburg, C. W. Shoemaker, J. J. Fred, J. W. Walter, W. F. Smith, W. E. Murray, E. E. Lutes, C. G. Yeomans, H. A. P. Homer, G. W. Keisling, David Wells, W. H. Harrison, F. A. LeMaster, O. T. Martin, J. M. Haines, F. M. Lacy, J. F. Blocker, C. A. Hile, J. L. Gillard, J. O. Campbell, Earle Naftzger, E. S. Riley, O. B. Morris, G. B. Work, A. Singer.

The following in special appointments were passed in character: George R. Grose, J. W. Cain, F. M. Stone, E. L. Jones, W. D. Parr, H. B. Gough, W. W. Sweet, F. B. Fisher, Madison Swadener, P. E. Powell, E. B. Westhafer, C. U. Wade, Sherman Powell, G. H. Myers, C. J. Everson.

The Bishop announced that those who were missionaries would have their character passed in the missions with which they were connected. F. A. Reichelderfer and W. E. Pittenger, who had been left without appointment to attend school, were passed in character, and also W. W. Sweet, of DePauw University.

Transfers.—Sanford McDonald was announced transferred to the Detroit Conference, and A. D. Burket was introduced to this Conference and announced transferred to us from the Rock River Conference.

When the names of J. O. Stutsman and A. H. Hirsch were called, they were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

W. A. Griest called the attention of the Conference to the meeting of the Conference of the Evangelical Association at Kendallville, Indiana, at the present time, and suggested a Committee on Fraternal Greeting. On motion, the Committee was ordered.

Announcements were made by the members of the different Committees of the time and place of their meetings. Bishop McDowell expressed his pleasure at the opportunity of presiding at this session of the Conference, and brought cheering reports from the Philadelphia Conference as to the great spiritual awakening throughout the territory of that great body. He spoke words of counsel with reference to the work of the present session of the Conference, and invited the ministers to confer with him about their work.

At the request of the Bishop, the North Indiana Conference Quartet sang "Help us to praise thee, Lord," after the singing of which he requested C. U. Wade to pronounce the benediction. Conference stood adjourned.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday Morning, April 8, 1915.

Conference convened at 8:35, Bishop McDowell in the chair. Hymn No. 315.

"Nearer, My God, to Thee," was sung. The Bishop read for the Scripture lesson 2 Cor. 5. 6-10. He said that he intended to speak to the Conference in a series of related and connected addresses running through four mornings, and that the subject for this morning would be, "The Minister as a Workman." At the close of this address, which was a very helpful and inspiring one, Somerville Light offered prayer.

Journal.—The journal of yesterday's session was read and approved. The Bishop announced the selection of M. Pell and John C. White as fraternal delegates to carry the greetings of this Conference to the Indiana Conference of the Evangelical Association, in session at Kendallville, Indiana.

The following were constituted a Committee on Resolutions: L. J. Naftzger, G. R. Grose, K. H. Carlson, R. L. Semans, W. F. Smith.

Auditing Committee: E. L. Jones, W. E. Hamilton, F. H. Cremean.

L. M. Edwards called the attention of the Conference to the need of a Conference Epworth League Institute, which shall meet during the year 1916. The following were constituted a Committee on General Arrangements, to have charge of the preparation therefor: C. C. Travis, L. M. Edwards, A. Cates, W. W. Martin, C. H. Smith, B. E. Parker.

District Conference Journals.—On motion, C. E. White and C. B. Dougherty were constituted a Committee on District Conference Journals.

Absentees.—The Secretary called the roll of the absentees, and the following responded to their names: C. H. Wilkinson, M. Swadener, M. F. Stright, J. F. Bailey, S. Billheimer, A. L. Weaver, J. E. Coffin, A. J. Duryee, M. L. Hardingham, G. W. Keisling, W. M. Amos, J. K. Wyant, H. Boase, C. B. Sweeney, M. E. Barrett, H. E. Forbes, C. A. Modlin, R. W. Stoakes, A. Singer, K. H. Carlson, and Probationer W. A. Huffman.

On motion of the Secretary, the further calling of the roll was ordered omitted.

B. S. Hollopeter moved that J. A. Sumwalt and W. W. Martin constitute a Committee to investigate the will of the late S. J. Mellinger, member of this Conference, and report back to the Conference.

J. A. Beatty announced the sale of a church property within the bounds of the Decatur Circuit, and requested the privilege of returning the same to the Decatur Circuit to be used for the building of parsonage property. On motion, this request was granted.

E. S. Shumaker, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, was introduced, and addressed the Conference on the program proposed by the League.

F. M. Stone, Endowment Secretary of the American University, was introduced to the Conference, and spoke in the interests of that institution.

On motion of W. W. Martin, the Committee on Conference Relations was instructed to consider only such cases as may be referred to it by the action of the Conference, the Cabinet, or by a District Superintendent concerning a man in his district.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The time having arrived for the meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society, according to its Constitution, on motion, the Conference adjourned, and the society convened, with Bishop McDowell in the chair.

C. U. Wade, Secretary, made his report, which, on motion, was accepted, and ordered placed on file and printed in the Minutes.

On motion, W. W. Martin, J. W. Cain, G. B. Work, and Henry Lacy were constituted a Committee on distribution of the funds of the society for the work of the Board of Stewards.

On motion of L. M. Krider, G. B. Work, Sherman Powell, and O. A. Trabue were constituted a Committee on nomination of officers of the society for the coming year.

J. W. Cain, General Secretary, addressed the society in the interests of the work committed to him, and requested their cooperation, and offered the following amendments, which were adopted:

Amend Art. III, Sec. 2, so as to read as follows: "Beneficiary Members.—All effective members of the North Indiana Conference are members in the First Class."

Amend Art. III, Sec. 2, by striking out the last paragraph of said section.

Amend the Bylaws by adding Sec. 6, as follows: "The Treasurer of this society shall be vested with the same authority that the President, Vice-President, and Secretary now have by law to release upon the record all mortgages, judgments, and other record liens held by this society, upon payment of the debts secured by said liens, and all such releases heretofore executed by Treasurers of this society are hereby fully ratified and confirmed."

On motion of W. W. Martin, it was ordered that all members of the North Indiana Conference who are not now members of the Preachers' Aid Society be requested to become members of this society.

C. U. Wade offered the following, which had been recommended by the Board of Control:

"In lieu of the proposed action to increase the Endowment Funds to $250,000, we recommend that the policy of the Preachers' Aid Society be to secure in wills and annuity, bonds and real estate, and such other gifts as may ultimately bring large increase to the Permanent Funds of the society, and that great care be taken in the securing of some man, when available, who has very pronounced ability in such work."

The Committee on Nominations recommended the following as officers of the society for the coming year: President, L. J. Naftzger; Vice-President, B. S. Hollopeter; Secretary, C. U. Wade; Treasurer, B. F. Shroyer; General Secretary, J. W. Cain. Managers: Hardin Roades, Benjamin Glasscock, D. O. Skillen, W. W. Martin, B. F. Shroyer—who were elected.

The Committee also recommended to the Board of Control that the Constitution be so amended as to provide that six men be added as an Executive Committee, which recommendation was adopted.

On motion of C. U. Wade, it was ordered that the salary of J. W. Cain be the same as last year.

J. W. Van Cleve was introduced, and addressed the society in the general interests of the Conference Claimants and the Board of Conference Claimants.

On motion of M. S. Marble, the Preachers' Aid Society requested that every member of the North Indiana Conference whose charge is delinquent on the Endowment Fund of $60,000, be requested to raise the amount apportioned to it at the earliest possible moment next year.

On motion, the Preachers' Aid Society adjourned.

Conference Business Resumed.—Conference business was resumed, Bishop McDowell presiding.

L. M. Krider offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

"WHEREAS, The Book of Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Paragraph 323, Section 1, declares that 'The claim to a comfortable support inheres in the gospel ministry, and rightfully inures to the benefit of the preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church when he is admitted to membership in an Annual Conference; and such claim is not invalidated by his being retired;' and,

"WHEREAS, The law of the Methodist Episcopal Church makes provision for the proper support of her retired preachers by providing that they be paid annually the full legal claim, as prescribed in the Book of Discipline, Paragraphs 331, 332, 333; and,

"WHEREAS, It is clearly an injustice, both to the laymen, who are thus obligated to furnish support, and the retired preachers, who must look to the Conference Claimants' Fund for their support, if men who are not rightfully entitled to this relation be placed upon the retired list, or if, by lax administration of the law, years of effective service be illegally counted as belonging to any man; therefore,

"Resolved, that we pledge ourselves to certain safeguards as to the limitation of the number who shall be admitted to the retired relation, and the counting of effective years of service, as follows:

"First, To so guard the doors of entrance to the Annual Conference that only such men as have by faithful trial been proven to be worthy and successful ministers of the gospel shall be admitted to full membership in the Conference;

"Second, To so guard the doors of exit from the effective ranks of the Annual Conference that no man shall be placed upon the list of retired preachers except it be for the reason that his physical or mental ability has so abated that he is no longer able to do the work of an effective preacher;

"Third, That we do not endorse the appointment of men who are on the effective list of the Conference to any place or form of service which is not clearly within the meaning of the law as defined in Paragraph 203, Sections 3 and 4, of the Discipline;

"Fourth, That we favor the appointment of only a sufficient number of Conference evangelists to do the work within the bounds of the Conference, the number to be decided by a two-thirds majority of the members of the Conference present and voting. See Item 8, Section 4, Paragraph 203, of the Discipline;

"Fifth, That if any man on the effective list of the Conference shall desire to pursue such work as does not, in the judgment of the Bishop presiding, and of the Conference, clearly come under the provision of the law, we recommend that he be given a location in order that he may legally pursue such work.

“L. M. Krider, W. W. Martin, F. M. Lacy, Wm. A. Griest, J. O. Bills, J. W. Cain, D. S. Jones, F. A. Hall, Otto A. Trabue, H. L. Overdeer, W. T. Arnold, John H. Runkle, E. E. Trippeer, O. E. Morris, Loren M. Edwards, H. Boase, A. Cates, R. J. Wade, Leslie J. Naftzger, J. F. Radcliffe, David Wells, J. Cook Graham.”

On motion of L. M. Krider, it was ordered that the amount to be apportioned to the charges for next year for the support of Conference Claimants shall be equal to the full legal claims of all Conference Claimants.

On motion of L. M. Krider, the Conference took action whereby all who become members of the North Indiana Conference shall, by virtue of such membership, become members of the Preachers' Aid Society.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question was resumed. The character of C. E. Line, Superintendent of Muncie District, was passed, and he reported the work of the district.

When he was asked by the Bishop if there was anything against any effective elder in his district, he said that there was nothing against any of them.

The following having been passed in character, reported their work, in accordance with the action of the Conference:

C. E. White, C. M. Hobbs, D. V. Williams, Eugene Allen, D. S. Jones, J. A. Ruley, H. T. Prell, H. E. Forbes, E. E. DeWitt, J. A. Patterson, W. W. Wiant, C. B. Dougherty, E. E. Trippeer, P. H. Walter, J. C. Woodruff, L. Huddleston, W. W. Martin, P. E. Greenwalt, T. J. Johnson, J. L. Murr, F. A. Hall, J. E. Williams, B. E. Jones, J. F. Lutey, G. F. Osbun, M. B. Graham, John Jones.

On motion of C. E. Line, the time was extended.

Charles F. Coffin was introduced, and spoke in the interest of the Methodist Hospital.

Dr. J. McLean Moulder, Superintendent of the Hospital, was introduced at this time.

Charles M. Stuart, D.D., President of Garrett Biblical Institute, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interest of that institution.

The announcements were made, and the Conference adjourned after the singing of "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and the pronouncing of the benediction by P. J. Albright.

THIRD DAY.

Morning Session.

Friday, April 9, 1915.

Bishop McDowell called the Conference to order at 8:35, and announced Hymn No. 410,

"Lord, speak to me, that I may speak," which was sung. He also announced Hymn No. 409,

"Fight the good fight with all thy might,"

which was sung. The Bishop read for the Scripture lesson 2 Cor. 6. 3-10, and addressed the Conference on the subject, "Tools the Minister Uses." At the close of the address, Conference sang,

"Work, for the night is coming."

President Grose, of DePauw University, led in prayer.

Journal.--At 9:20 A. M. the business of the Conference session was taken up by the Bishop calling for the reading of the journal of the session of yesterday. The journal was read and approved.

Triers of Appeals.--On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the following were appointed Triers of Appeals: C. U. Wade, L. J. Naftzger, A. G. Neal, W. D. Parr, J. C. White, L. M. Krider, H. C. Harmon.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the Bishop was requested to appoint three Conference Evangelists.

The Conference requested the Bishop to appoint as Conference Evangelists, J. W. Oborn, E. B. Westhafer, and T. M. Guild.

F. M. Stone offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

"WHEREAS, There is no specific Disciplinary direction requiring Conference Evangelists to make a report of their work through the Conference year, either to the Annual Conference in person or to the District Superintendent; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That each Conference Evangelist be required to submit in writing to his respective District Superintendent an annual report of the number of meetings held, the number of converts, and such other items as properly belong to the report of a Conference Evangelist, such as meetings held within the bounds of his own Conference or elsewhere, also stating whether these meetings were union services or in individual churches.

"Second, That each District Superintendent is requested to embody in his report to the Annual Conference a suitable summary of the items furnished by the Conference Evangelists assigned to some Quarterly Conference within his district.

"Fred M. Stone,

"C. U. Wade,

"W. W. Martin,

"W. F. Smith."

On motion of M. S. Marble, the Trustees of the Maple Grove Church, on the Point Isabel charge, were granted the privilege of selling the property and applying the money on a parsonage for the charge.

On motion of S. Light, the Trustees of Richland Church, on the Inwood charge, were given the privilege of selling the property and using the money for the repair of the parsonage property at Inwood.

Report.—C. U. Wade, appointed to preside over the Select Number in the case of R. I. Black, reported as follows:

"Auburn, Indiana, April 8, 1915.

"In the case of the Church against Rollo I. Black, the finding of the Committee, or 'Select Number,' is that 'the charges are not sustained.'

"Attest: C. U. Wade, Chairman;

"W. A. Griest, Secretary."

Introductions.—S. H. Kirkbride, Colorado Conference; A. W. Lowther and C. W. Dobson, Indiana; E. W. Dunlavey, Fourteenth Question Resumed.—The Fourteenth Question was resumed. Logansport District was called, and the character of B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent, was passed, and he reported the work on the district.

The Bishop asked him if he had in every Quarterly Conference urged the prorating of the ministerial claims and raising the benevolences. He answered that he had.

A. L. Weaver, M. L. Hardingham, J. F. Bailey, J. J. Fischer, L. G. Jacobs, J. F. Radcliffe, R. W. Rogers, J. H. Palmer, G. E. Garrison, H. L. Liddle, L. M. Krider, E. C. Fisher, C. M. Vawter, J. C. White, J. A. Sprague, J. A. Sumwalt, H. L. Overdeer, E. C. Dunn, E. H. Kennedy, W. E. McPheeters, T. M. Guild, LeRoy Myers, S. F. Harter, G. W. Bailor, W. C. Asay, J. S. Newcombs, Arthur Cates, W. M. Amos, W. E. Hamilton.

When the name of F. O. Scurrah was called, at the request of the District Superintendent he was allowed to withdraw for the purpose of re-entering the ministry in the Presbyterian Church.

Student Pastorate.—E. W. Dunlavey, of the Northwest Indiana Conference, addressed the Conference in the interest of the Methodist students attending Purdue University, and the great need of a student pastor for the same, and asked for the appointment of a Committee from our Conference with whom he and others might advise as to the proper action to be taken in the case.

On motion of W. W. Martin, the Conference requested the appointment of such a Committee.

Fourteenth Question Resumed.—Under the call of the Fourteenth Question, Somerville Light, Superintendent of Goshen District, was passed in character, and he read his report; at the conclusion of the reading of the same, the Conference joined in singing,

“Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.”

Presentation.—A. G. Neal, in behalf of the ministers of Goshen District, in well-chosen words presented Brother Light, who had finished a term of six years of service as Superintendent of Goshen District, a new typewriter; to which address Brother Light made reply in suitable words.

The Bishop asked him the Disciplinary Questions in regard to the ministerial claims and the benevolences, and he answered that he had obeyed the law of the Church.

Edit Reports.—On motion of C. E. Line, the Secretary was requested to edit the reports of the District Superintendents, and reduce each of them to five pages of printed matter in the Year Book.

Marsh Will.—B. S. Hollopeter called the attention of the Conference to the provisions in the will of George Marsh, late of Marshall County, Indiana, by which the North Indiana Conference had become a beneficiary to the extent of a good farm. On his motion, the farm was ordered sold and part of the proceeds applied as follows, on the recommendation of the Cabinet: Saint Paul Church, Elkhart, $7,000; Grace Church, Anderson, $2,000; Ada New Memorial Church, Greenfield, $1,000, and the Methodist Episcopal Church, Upland, $500.

Will of S. J. Mellinger.—The Committee appointed to investigate the provisions of the will of the late S. J. Mellinger submitted the following report, which was adopted:

“WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, to remove from this Conference the Reverend Stephen J. Mellinger since its last meeting; and,

“WHEREAS, And in accord with his fidelity and loyalty to the Methodist Episcopal Church and its departments, our departed brother, by his last will and testament, devised his real estate, subject to the life estate therein reserved to his beloved wife, Martha J. Mellinger, to the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and,

“WHEREAS, Our departed brother left a personal estate of less than Three Hundred Dollars and that of three parcels of real estate so devised, one is occupied by the said Martha J. Mellinger and the income from the other two is little, if any, in excess of the amount required to meet the taxes, assessments, repairs, and interest on a certain seven hundred and fifty dollar mortgage, against all of the said real estate; and,

"WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Conference that, in view of the loyal support and untiring efforts of the said Martha J. Mellinger in all departments of the Church, and in view of the fact that the net income from said real estate is not sufficient alone to provide for her the comforts and necessities of life, and that her ability at her age, viz., fifty-four years, to earn a living is a matter of much uncertainty; be it, therefore,

"Resolved, That we, the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, are deeply impressed that our beloved sister, Martha J. Mellinger, should, by reason of the foregoing preamble, have the free and unlimited right to the use and enjoyment of said real estate, to use in such manner as her needs may require; and to that end be it further

"Resolved, That the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by its proper officers, in consideration of our love and esteem for our departed brother, the Reverend Stephen J. Mellinger, and in recognition of the valuable services rendered to all departments of the Methodist Episcopal Church by our beloved sister, Martha J. Mellinger, shall forthwith, by proper deed of conveyance, quit claim any and all interest we may have in and to said real estate to said Martha J. Mellinger. And be it further

"Resolved, That, by these resolutions, we respectfully recommend and request that the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church also convey, by quit claim deed, any and all interest it may have in and to said real estate to said Martha J. Mellinger in order that the purposes and objects herein expressed may be fully and completely carried out. And be it further

"Resolved, That the Secretary of this Conference be and is hereby instructed to forthwith forward to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church a certified copy of these resolutions, a copy to said Martha J. Mellinger, and that the same be spread upon the records of this Conference.

"J. A. Sumwalt,

"W. W. Martin,

"Committee."

In Special Service.—On motion of F. B. Fisher, the Conference ordered the appointment of a Committee to devise a plan whereby the men in special service should report their work to their respective Quarterly Conferences and District Superintendents, in order that they may be held responsible for the work that they do.

The Bishop announced the appointment of D. H. Guild, R. L. Semans, J. A. Sprague, W. D. Parr, and F. A. Hall, Committee on the matter of the student pastorate.

Representation.—George Richmond Grose, President of DePauw University, was introduced to the Conference, and addressed it in reference to the work and needs of the university.

Conference Corporation.—On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the following were elected the officers of the Conference Corporation: President, L. J. Naftzger; Vice-President, T. M. Guild; Secretary, D. V. Williams; Treasurer, C. U. Wade. The Bishop called the attention of the Conference to the filing and recording of the articles of incorporation of this Conference, and the officers of the Conference Corporation were requested to investigate the legal steps to be taken in the matter and report to the next session.

The Committee on Fraternal Greetings, through O. A. Trabue, reported that they had presented the greetings of this Conference to the Indiana Conference of the Evangelical Association, now in session at Kendallville, and read resolutions from their Committee acknowledging our greetings. (See Resolutions.)

The Committee on Education read its report, and F. M. Stone, M. Vayhinger, and Bishop McDowell spoke on educational problems. The report was then adopted by a rising vote.

On motion of R. J. Wade, an apportionment of five cents per member was ordered for Taylor University, to be reported in a separate column.

On motion of R. J. Wade, it was ordered that hereafter the Disciplinary benevolences be reported in a group in the printed reports of the Year Book.

The following Committees made reports which were adopted (see Reports): Hospitals, Foreign Missions, Evangelism, Recommendations of the Board of Stewards, Memorial Home, Bible Society.

The Committee on Temperance submitted report, which, on motion of C. E. Line, was recommitted.

On motion of T. M. Guild, it was ordered that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 1:30 this afternoon.

The doxology was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by W. D. Parr.

Afternoon Session.

The Conference convened at 1:30, the time fixed in accordance with the motion for adjournment, with Fred Fisher presiding at the request of the Bishop. He announced Hymn No. 171,

“Hail, thou despised Jesus,” which was sung, and prayer was offered by J. W. Cain and C. U. Wade. Hymn No. 330,

“My hope is built on nothing else,” was sung. For a Scripture lesson the presiding officer read a few verses from the first chapter of Philippians. This was followed by Everett Naftzger singing "I have a Saviour, he died for me," and "'Tis Jesus."

T. C. Neal, Statistical Secretary Emeritus, read a review of the reports of the pastors.

The following Committees made reports, which were adopted: Temperance, Social and Moral Questions, Board of Control of Deaconess Work, Church Literature, Freedmen's Aid, Auditing Committee, Sustentation, Women's Work in the Church, District Conference Journals, Sunday Schools, Commission on Finance, and Conference Corporation.

On motion of A. S. Preston, the Committee on Temperance was requested to send to President Wilson, under proper signature, the expression of this Conference on the subject of temperance.

B. S. Hollopeter, in behalf of the Cabinet, presented the nominations of the Conference Boards and Committees, which were ordered printed in the Year Book without reading.

The Statistical Secretary and Treasurer read reports of totals, which were accepted.

Collection.—On motion of W. W. Martin, a collection was ordered taken for the janitor, which was done, and amounted to $19.12, which was ordered paid to him.

On motion of S. Light, the Conference authorized the sale of the Eight Square Church, on the Warsaw circuit, and the money to be used for building a parsonage.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted its report, which, on motion, was adopted by a standing vote.

The Cabinet announced the addition of W. B. Freeland to the Board of Examiners.

Transfers.—The Bishop announced the following transfers in: Frank S. Burns and R. M. Sand, Northwest Indiana; C. W. Chadwick, and A. Wirt Lowther, from the Indiana Conference; M. E. Shattuck, Michigan.

He announced the transfer of J. A. Sumwalt to the Indiana Conference.

The journals of the forenoon and afternoon sessions were approved without reading.

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that after the reading of the appointments by the Bishop, the Conference stand adjourned sine die. He read the list of appointments, addressed the Conference briefly on the work of the session, congratulating the preachers on the increase in the membership in the church and the benevolences, urging still further increase in the membership next year; led in the singing of

"God be with you till we meet again," and dismissed the Conference with prayer and the benediction. The North Indiana Annual Conference stood adjourned without day.

Secretary of the Cabinet.

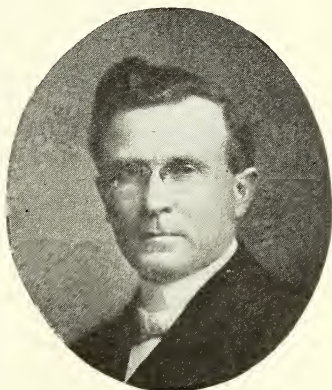

Reports of District Superintendents.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: I present to you, in my fifth annual report, a brief summary of the doings in the last twelve months on Fort Wayne District. Some notable achievements have been witnessed. Thirty-seven faithful pastors, with heroism and unflagging devotion, allied with the strong arm of the loyal laity, will present to you encouraging and inspiring reports.

Changes.—After three weeks of efficient service, Homer E. Elliott, supplying the Woodburn charge, on account of serious illness, surrendered his charge. Arthur K. Love, serving the Newlight Christian Church at Hagerstown, Indiana, was secured and has closed out one of the best years the charge has ever had. E. L. English, a supply on the Hoagland charge, was released to become a member of the Michigan Conference, and E. M. Foster, a supernumerary of our Conference, was immediately placed in charge and the work has gone forward in a fine way. Bishop McDowell released D. A. J. Brown from the Poneto charge the last of September to attend Garrett Biblical

J. A. Beatty.

Institute, and John R. Stelle was transferred from the Indiana Conference and he is rapidly bringing this charge up to a high standard of efficiency. Charles H. Hickman of Hudson-Ashley charge was transferred to the Oklahoma Conference the first of October, and D. A. J. Brown, disappointed in a promised charge, so he could attend school at Garrett Biblical Institute, returned and was placed at Hudson. By his zeal and evangelistic spirit, the charge in six months has made the greatest strides in its history. Edmund C. Lindsay, after five months service at Huntertown, left his charge without the consent of the Bishop or District Superintendent. By request he withdrew from the ministry and membership of North Indiana Conference and turned over his credentials to said Conference. J. W. Gruber was transferred from the Indiana Conference to us and took charge of the work at Huntertown the last of September. Four of these changes were made in the middle of the year without any of them being without a pastor a single Sunday except Huntertown, which was supplied two Sundays.

Only four retired ministers are living within the bounds of the District: M. C. Pittinger, Chauncey King, J. K. Walts, and M. F. Stright. There are three outside, W. M. Van Slyke, Lawton, Michigan; B. Sawyer, Mansfield, Ohio, and W. E. McCarty, Shoals, Indiana. Brother King has done one of the best year's work of his life at New Haven. The other three in the District are helpful to the pastor and charges in which they live.

Death Toll.—Death has laid heavy toll on the District this year. Dr. Jesse Bowman Young, beloved and known in many circles of both church and state, cast anchor on the other shore from Wesley Hospital, Chicago, July 30th, 1914. This giant of Methodism did not belong to North Indiana Conference, but to the great Methodist Episcopal Church. The richness of his life and pen reached throughout our borders. The funeral services were held in Chicago, where Bishop William F. McDowell spoke the fitting words. Two Fort Wayne pastors' homes were sorely bereaved. Mrs. Lena Nixon Travis, wife of Rev. C. Claude Travis, after several months of serious illness, quietly on Sunday evening, July 19th, slipped away in answer to the call of the Divine Master. Mrs. Cora Cremean, wife of Rev. F. H. Cremean, after more than a year's patient suffering, went to her crowning October 30th, 1914. It would be hard to find two pastors' wives more efficient and more sadly missed than these. Choice spirits they were here. Will they not be so in heaven?

Building and Improvements.—Early in the Conference year definite plans were made by the Trustees at Monroe to build a new parsonage. The old one, quite insufficient for present use, was sold and moved off the lot, and a beautiful new house, with all modern equipments, was erected at a cost of $4,500. It would be a credit to any good city church. Brother and Sister Phillips, along with their good people, planned it wisely, and are now happily housed in one of the most beautiful preacher's homes in Fort Wayne District.

The parsonage on the Portland circuit, being too small and not very well located, Henry Lacy, the pastor, and the Board of Trustees effected a trade for a much larger and more commodious house centrally located, at an additional cost of $1,000.

The increased congregation and Sunday-school at Ossian, under the leadership of Rev. J. Orr Powell, made a larger church a necessity. Plans were secured to use their present church, double the capacity of the auditorium, add a modern Sunday-school room with a capacity of 500. This was done at a cost of $12,000. The symmetry of the church was maintained, and this small town has a plant conservatively valued at $25,000. Dr. Albert Edwin Smith, President of Ohio Northern University, preached the dedicatory sermon February 7. He preached the masterful sermons and raised more than $6,000 covering all indebtedness with a good margin for interest. On Sunday night this large, beautiful church, filled to its capacity with a loyal, interested people, was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. Here is a country charge, with a church membership of between five and six hundred and a church property, including the parsonage, valued at $40,000. Our fathers would have been shocked at the mention of what is now a reality.

Garrett has just completed one of the most magnificent churches in our Conference. It is a gem in architecture, built on the modern Sunday-school plan at a cost of $35,000. To appreciate it you must see it and have Rev. Charles Tinkham, the popular pastor, show you a real up-to-date church. This invitation is extended you while attending this session of Conference. The fitting day to dedicate this church was last Sunday, in the beautiful Easter time. Bishop McDowell made us happy by responding to our request to perform this holy task. This was not a day of money getting. It was a day of soul gathering. The money had all been previously arranged for. Every claim of man was satisfied, with $5,000 to the good. The Bishop, as he preached the Word, moved the hearts of the great audience in an unusual way. The church was solemnly dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. Then came the call for souls. Church committees had previously canvassed every home in Garrett for Christ and his Kingdom. The pastor made the call for membership. People arose from every part of the house and filled all available space about the chancel and inside the chancel and then back into the aisles, totaling 104 received into the church at this service. If the angels rejoice so much over one penitent sinner, I think they must have had a great time in heaven last Sunday. This church has a wise, level headed Board of Trustees, and a pastor of the same sort. Dr. Ernest C. Wareing preached at night and closed out the most wonderful day the city of Garrett ever experienced.

Our Church at Geneva, E. M. Dunbar, pastor, put in a full basement under their church, with all modern appointments, a fine steam heating plant, fitted up additional Sunday-school rooms at a cost of $2,800. Dr. W. H. Hickman preached on the re-opening Sunday, and the needed amount of money was raised for the improvement.

Many other churches have made minor improvements, making a grand total expended for these purposes this year of $43,583.

Sale of Church.—The Alpha church on the Decatur circuit had not been used for several years and was fast going into decay. With no promise or prospect of its being used, the Quarterly Conference ordered it sold. The trustees made the legal advertisement, and December 19, 1914, it was sold, the net proceeds being $90.50. We turn this over to the Conference with the request that it be returned to the charge to be used in building a parsonage.

Church Organizations.—The District has 91 Sunday schools with a total enrollment of more than 16,000, 1,569 teachers and officers. There is fine advance in grading the schools, organizing Teacher Training classes and unifying the Adult Bible classes and Brotherhoods. The Sunday schools have raised for Missionary purposes about $2,500. The general advance in our Sunday school work is gratifying.

The pastors have reported 40 Epworth Leagues with an enrollment of 1,900. The various Leagues have pledged $1,400 for the support of Dr. D. O. Ernsberger, Superintendent of the Belgaum District, India. The activity of the Epworth League life is greatly on the increase.

The Junior League work is encouraging and advancing. We have twenty chapters, and they have raised more than $300 for missionary work.

The Ladies' Aid Societies and Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have made the usual good record.

Five active Methodist Brotherhoods are reported, but they do not stick to organized work like the women do to the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies. But with their big plans and extended ideas they are rapidly leading the Methodist Episcopal Church up the hill.

Church Papers.—The pastors have made a faithful canvass for our church literature, and report about eleven hundred Advocates and four hundred Epworth Heralds.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The district has pushed hard to secure the $10,000 for this splendid cause. We confidently hoped to get over the hill this year, but we lack about $1,500 of the goal.

District Meetings.—Four district meetings were held besides the meeting of the District Stewards and pastors, when we had a strong program. The Epworth League Convention was held in June at St. Paul Church, Fort Wayne. The program was practical and of high order and was pronounced the most helpful of any ever held in the District.

In October, Dr. Edgar Blake, Corresponding Secretary of our Sunday School Board, gave us a high grade program for a District Sunday School Institute, which was held at First Church, Bluffton.

The instructors were Revs. Harry C. Wilson, Arlo A. Brown, James A. Beebe, and Miss Helen P. Patten. The real benefit that came from this Institute to our Sunday school work cannot now be estimated.

Settlement Day meeting was held at Simpson Church, Ft. Wayne. The program was an inspiring one. A large majority of the charges reported salaries paid up to date and working the new financial plan.

The District Conference was held at Ossian. The attendance was large at every session. The program the richest ever. The team work by Bishop McDowell, Dr. W. S. Boyard, and Dr. Edgar Blake was just great. No other word is sufficiently expressive. The inspirational address at night by Bishop McDowell carried us into the realm of big things. We have been thinking about big things ever since. We all concluded we wanted to be "Big Methodists" and no longer "Little Methodists." The address by Mrs. Culla Vayhinger of Upland on "Woman's Work in the Church" was helpful and thrilling. Bishop W. F. Oldham, always intense and interesting, was at his best, and reached a fitting climax as a closing of this great Conference. The Conference licensed to young men to preach the Gospel, and recommended Arthur K. Love and Lewis Winston Stone for admission on trial in this Conference.

Benevolences and Finance.—There is now much complaint about financial depression. Many are feeling the heavy heart-beat of commerce. Notwithstanding this fact, every phase of finance in the District forged ahead. Building, improving, salaries, benevolences are well in advance of all past years. Not more than two charges in the District will report a decline in benevolences. Shortages will occur only where the every member canvas and the duplex envelope have been disregarded or where the causes were presented too late in the year. Last year we made a gain of $2,020 in Disciplinary benevolences, this year the gain will be much larger.

Salaries have been increased more than $2,000, and there will be little if any deficits. None of the pastors have been overpaid. I do not know of any who have been underfed. Reports will show a good increase in nearly every phase of our work.

Spiritual Awakening and Membership.—The day of spiritual awakening has come. "The Lord is pouring out his spirit on all flesh." These are greater days than the days of Finney and Edwards. "It is not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

Four great tabernacle meetings were held in the district—Fort Wayne, Auburn, Bluffton, and Decatur; one now in progress at Montpelier. In these meetings at least 9,000 have been reclaimed or openly confessed their Lord for the first time. The meeting held in Fort Wayne by Dr. Milford H. Lyon and party was one of the greatest ever held in the State. Our churches are now crowded at every service, some of them overcrowded. Trinity is unable to take care of her church membership or the Sunday school. She is getting ready to build a new church with treble the capacity of the old one. The mid-week prayer services have throngs of people, when formerly the numbers, in some instances, were too limited to be mentioned. It has not only aroused a spiritual interest and added many names to our churches, but with militant organization the city is prepared to look after its moral and spiritual needs as never before.

The meeting held at Auburn and Bluffton by Rev. George T. Stephens and party brought many new people into the church and deepened the spiritual life of those already in. The meeting conducted by Dr. I. E. Honeywell and party at Decatur was a sweeping victory. The results from these meetings were proportionately greater than the one held in Fort Wayne. Decatur reported 1,400, Auburn 1,300, and Bluffton 500.

The greatest meeting for any individual charge in the District, if not in the entire Conference, the pastor being his own evangelist, was held by Rev. J. W. Gruber on the Huntertown charge. The conversions numbered 355, and 269 have already been received into the church, with more to follow. Two hundred and ninety-eight adults have been baptized, and the membership of this country charge numbers 612.

One of the outstanding meetings occurred at Hudson and Ashley with 126 conversions. D. A. J. Brown, the pastor, was his own evangelist. Business and professional men, railroad men, farmers, bankers, clerks and carpenters were swept into the Kingdom. The good work still goes on.

"And what more shall I say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and of Barak and of Samson and of Jephthae." I beg only a moment to report the number of conversions from the pastors: Huntertown, J. W. Gruber, 355; Fort Wayne, Trinity, T. M. Hill, 300; Simpson, W. A. Griest, 265; St. Paul, F. H. Cremean, 249; First Church, D. H. Guild, 200; Wayne Street, C. C. Travis, 119; Auburn, F. F. Thornburg, 273; Decatur, D. T. Stephenson, 260; Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, 170; Hudson-Ashley, D. A. J. Brown, 126; Garrett, Charles Tinkham, 125; New Haven, C. King, 100; Spencerville, E. A. McClinck, 90; Leo, E. J. Maupin, 78; Geneva, E. M. Dunbar, 53; Woodburn, A. K. Love, 53; Orland, B. F. Hornaday, 47; Hoagland, E. M. Foster, 45; Fort Wayne circuit, Charles Metts, 42; Coesse, E. E. Wright, 40; Decatur circuit, Joseph Grimes, 40; Geneva circuit, J. C. Valentine, 37; Portland, A. S. Preston, 35; Monroeville, C. M. Hoppeter, 33; Bluffton circuit, J. M. Bundy, 32; Harlan, Monroe, Montpelier, and Portland circuit, 25 each; Angola, Bobo, Ossian, Poneto, and York, from 16 to 24 each; only two charges with smaller numbers.

There have been reported 3,423 conversions; 2,450 received on probation; 2,515 received into full membership and by letter. Net increase for the year, 2,208, or a gain of more than 16 per cent.

The record of another year is closed. The advance has been fine. Our watchword has been "Efficiency." We have been asking for the best method of presenting Jesus Christ to this hungry world as a personal Saviour. The results are the evidence of it. These 37 pastors have dared to go forward on the battle line. The conquering Christ has been our leader. Unto him be all glory and power and dominion for ever and ever.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

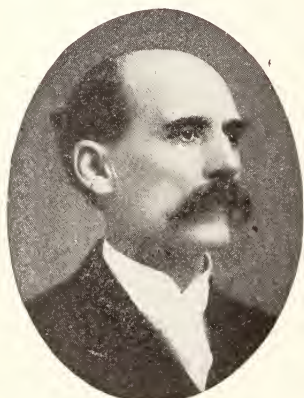

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.

Bishop McDowell and Brothers: There is a saying which reads something like this: "Responsibility causes some men to grow, others to swell." I came to the Superintendency of Goshen District six years ago, feeling that I had the confidence and good will of my brethren. As I stand here to-day, about to present the last annual report of my term, I can truthfully say, I have made an honest effort to so conduct myself as to merit the continuance of this brotherly spirit.

Of the thirty-nine men appointed to the charges at Mishawaka, thirty-eight remained throughout the year. W. V. Mullikin, a supply on the Warsaw circuit, released himself in October. Brother J. H. Royer was immediately secured. Last year seven charges pulled down, one played even. This year, 39 charges—the number in the district—are in the "Pull Up Column." At the opening of the Conference year twelve retired ministers resided within the bounds of the District. Brother W. R. Wones, one of the choice spirits of this honored group, was called to his eternal home December 12. Though a great sufferer for months, he was interested in the big things of the Kingdom to the last hour, and died on the victorious side. We bespeak for Sister Wones and the dear children the prayers of the entire Conference. The home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Bennett was visited by a great sorrow, when, on Friday, February 12, Miss Beunna quietly went away to her "other home." In early July a great grief came to Brother William Lash, for thirty-one years on the retired list, when his companion, who had walked life's pathway with him for nearly sixty years, stepped aside to the rest provided by her divine Lord. Two of the pastors' families have been sadly bereaved. May 21, Ralph W., the six year old son of Brother and Sister V. L. Clear, while riding with the family to a country appointment, was suddenly kicked by the frightened horse being driven on the occasion, and in a few hours passed away. June 27, after a brief illness, Grenfell Shaw, son of Brother and Sister Roscoe Shaw, went to sleep in the arms of Jesus. Three of our parsonage homes have been gladdened by the coming of sweet babies. Brothers and Somerville Light.

Sisters Cates of Nappanee, Stoakes of Bourbon, and Denbo of Wawaka are rightfully happy and proud.

Survey of the Work of 1914 to 1915.—The Sunday schools, 84 in number, are the best organized and doing the best work they have ever done. Total enrollment, 14,008. A good gain over last year. Cradle Roll enrollment is carefully looked after. Number enrolled at this time 1,253, an average of 15 per school. All use our literature, and nearly all are organized into missionary societies. Their offerings for missions total $1,985. Our District Sunday School Institute was held in Trinity Church, Elkhart, in September, with a good program. I am glad to report the greatest number of conversions from the Sunday schools this year of any of the six. The Men's Bible Class work is moving forward at a great pace. The pastors report 45 Senior Epworth League Chapters with an enrollment of 1,833. At the District Convention held in Kendallville in June these fine young people pledged about $1,400 for the support of their missionary in China, Dr. J. H. McCartney.

The Junior Chapters seem to be doing good work, but because of the difficulties attending the securing of suitable superintendents, this work does not progress as it should. Think of it! Eighteen Junior Epworth League Chapters in a great district like this, with a membership of less than 900, and 120 of this number in one chapter, viz., the chapter in First Church, Warsaw.

The Men's Brotherhoods, 14 in number, in league with the Men's Bible Study Classes, have done excellent work throughout the year.

The Boy Scout Work is gaining in strength and favor. The leading business men in not a few of our centers are sympathetic and liberal in their support.

Woman's Work. The Ladies' Aid Societies have done a great year's work. Aside from the social influence exerted, they have raised in money $14,625, a gain of $2,625 over last year.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have both made a good gain, and both lead the Conference. Both have increased the number of auxiliaries. Their combined offerings total $6,576.00.

Finances.—At the annual meeting of pastors and District Stewards, after listening to a good meaty program and attending to the routine business, plans were adopted for the district campaign in behalf of St. Paul Church, Elkhart. The total amount reported to me by the charges is $10,875. This heroic membership turned over to the treasurer of the Executive Committee $5,775. Trinity Church, ever faithful to this enterprise, takes next position with $1,281. New Paris ranks third with $850; Simpson Church, Elkhart, fourth, with $360. The following come in order named: Leesburg, $356; Wolcottville, $335; LaGrange, $285; Kendallville, $253; Butler, $250; Valentine, $202; Albion, $200; and many others with amounts from $100 down to $12. The exact amounts paid by the other districts have not been reported to me, but this I know—more than $14,900 of the indebtedness has been paid off this Conference year. What has been done has opened the way for a gracious revival in which more than two hundred professed conversion, and one hundred and thirty-eight were received into the church.

Warsaw Church Building Day was observed May 10. Bishop McDowell was the preacher for the occasion. The preliminary work had been so well done by pastor and officials that in a few minutes $41,533 was subscribed for the new church enterprise. Within a few days the subscription was pushed to the $45,000 mark. A large force of men is busy laying the foundations for the new fifty-thousand-dollar building. In early May the people of Kimmel—G. E. Whitten, pastor—purchased a parsonage property at a cost of seven hundred dollars and paid the bill. This new charge was carved out of the old Wawaka charge, which paid the pastor nine hundred dollars and house. Early in the year the old parsonage in Bristol—C. B. Croxall, pastor—was disposed of and a new site purchased, and a comfortable, commodious house built as a cost of about twenty-three hundred dollars.

The elegant new church at Bourbon—R. W. Stoakes, pastor—was dedicated on June 28 by Dr. W. D. Parr. Twelve thousand, seven hundred and thirty-two dollars was needed to cash even. In a short while the jubilant people of Bourbon subscribed $17,000.

In January, while the revival meeting was in progress with promise of good success, the Barker's Chapel Church, Waterloo charge, was burned to the ground. Pastor Carl E. Bash immediately rallied the officary and membership, and secured subscriptions amounting to $3,500 with which to erect a new church. At Benton, A. A. Turner, pastor, a new parsonage has just been completed at a cost of $2,100.

Architects are now perfecting plans and specifications for the new church at Nappanee—Silas Cates, pastor. This new work just completed and now under way, aggregates more than $113,700. First Church, Goshen—R. L. Semans, pastor—after extensive improvements which make the auditorium one of the most beautiful in the Conference, was reopened by the pastor, R. L. Semans, October 4. The cost of these improvements was in round numbers $3,000. Dr. L. M. Edwards reports an $11,000 improvement within the new Memorial Church, in the interests of the intermediate Sunday school and the men's Bible class. Other improvements amounting to $100 and over have been made on the following charges: Wolcottville, I. R. Goodwin, pastor, $725; New Paris, W. F. Buckner, pastor, $910; Wawaka, Jesse Denbo, pastor, $670; Valentine, J. K. Wyant, pastor, $630; Inwood, W. E. Hogan, pastor, $580; Middlebury, G. W. Martin, pastor, $510; Topeka, H. Boose, pastor, $589; Butler, A. H. Backus, pastor, $450; Saint Paul, Elkhart, R. A. Morrison, pastor, $365; Trinity, Elkhart, R. J. Wade, pastor, $365; Osceola, W. E. Loveless, pastor, $225; Wakarusa, S. B. Stookey, pastor, $210; Etna Green, Edwin Dickson, pastor, $200; Kimmel, G. E. Whitten, pastor, $203; Corunna, E. A. Hartman, pastor, $181; LaGrange, J. T. Bean, pastor, $150; Saint Mark's, Goshen, J. C. Graham, pastor, $145; Leesburg, J. W. Bowen, pastor, $110; Kendallville, M. Pell, pastor, $110; total, $12,391. The following amounts have been paid on indebtedness: Saint Paul, Elkhart, $14,900; Butler, $1,400 on parsonage debt; North Webster, $1,000; Avilla, $577; Simpson Memorial Church, Elkhart, $512; Trinity, Elkhart, $510; Syracuse, $500; Kimmel, $350; Etna Green, $171; Middlebury, $200; Howe, $150; Topeka, $120; total, $19,500. Aside from the Saint Paul, Elkhart, debt, we have only $5,345 indebtedness against the properties of the district, which properties are now valued at $714,655. Preparation was made this year for the ten days' campaign in behalf of the benevolences and the fall and winter revival campaign by conducting, September 28 and 29, what was called Goshen District Sunday School and Evangelism Institute, Drs. Edgar Blake and A. O. Brown of the Board of Sunday Schools, Dr. J. O. Randall of the Commission on Evangelism, and Dr. F. M. Stone, endowment secretary of the American University, participating.

Settlement Day Services were held in the New Paris church, December 8. The pastors and a large number of the laymen of the district were present with heart-cheering reports. A large majority of the charges reported salaries paid in full and a like majority reported that they were working the New Financial Plan.

Salaries.—Nineteen charges advanced pastors' salaries at the beginning of the year. This advance totaled $3,730. All other ministerial support has advanced in good ratio.

Benevolences.—The gain in missions alone, exclusive of Women's Missionary Societies, is $2,224; $9,908 last year, $12,132 this year. The gain, including Women's Societies, is $2,622. Disciplinary Benevolences—the seven—last year, $11,780; this year, $14,428; gain, $2,648. Disciplinary Benevolences, including Women's Societies, last year, $18,291; this year, $20,999; gain, $2,708. The sum total for all benevolences last year—additional benevolences, miscellaneous benevolences, etc., was $36,710. Mishawaka: Foreign Missionary Society, $2,000; Home Missionary, $962; District Benevolences, $3,381; grand total, $13,551. The sum this year reaches $43,183; a gain of $6,473. For all causes, home and abroad, the good people of this district contributed this year $211,588. The average contribution per member ranges in the various charges from $6 to $61.

Revivals and Membership.—Both by pastors and laymen the work of evangelism has been pressed as never before during my term on the district.

Tabernacle meetings were conducted in Elkhart, New Paris, Kendallville, and Albion. In other charges, pastors lead the forces. The Elkhart meeting, in charge of Evangelist Lyon, resulted in hundreds of decisions and a general awakening of the city. Pastors Wade, Morrison, and Huffman conserved the results so far as Methodism is concerned. Each supplemented the meetings with meetings in his own church, Pastor Morrison being assisted by Mrs. Culla Vayhinger, and added to their membership just 500 people. Trinity, 241; St. Paul, 202; and Simpson Memorial, 57. Kendallville received 60; New Paris 60, and Albion 25. Inwood, W. E. Hogan, reported 263; Mishawaka, L. M. Edwards, 150; Bourbon, R. W. Stoakes, 140; Warsaw, A. G. Neal, 100; Osceola, W. E. Loveless, 115; Howe, R. S. Shaw, 70; Valentine, J. K. Wyant, 66; Etna Green, Edwin Dickson, 56; Pierceton, G. F. Hubbart, 53. Other charges report as follows: Syracuse, B. F. Hornaday, evangelist; C. A. Cloud, pastor, 75; Bristol, W. A. Huffman, assisting pastor C. B. Croxall, 56; South Milford, L. W. Kemper, 39; Waterloo, B. F. Hornaday, and C. E. Bash, 30; Alvarado, F. S. Burns, pastor, 38; Avilla, evangelist Weaver and pastor Lamport, 55; Kimmel, G. E. Whitten, 35; La Grange, J. T. Bean, 33; Butler, A. H. Backus, 31; Leesburg, J. W. Bowen and evangelist Nipper, 40; Nappanee, Silas Cates, 25; North Webster, W. T. Daly, 21; Goshen, St. Mark's, J. C. Graham, 21; Ligonier, C. L. DeBow, 20; Wakarusa, S. B. Stookey, 20. The other pastors report from 5 to 18 conversions. Total conversions for the district, 2,523. J. W. Oborn, Conference evangelist from this district, reports more than 1,000 conversions. The accessions to the membership number 2,109. The percentage of gain in membership ranges from 5 to 35 per cent. Deducting all losses, we have made better than a ten per cent gain.

Church Literature.—Our own literature is generally used in Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues and homes. The Western Christian Advocate more than holds its place as compared with former years. The Epworth Herald is doing its work for our young people.

District Conference.—This Conference was held in First Church, Goshen, March 2, 3, and 4. Every pastor, save one, was present. Bishop Oldham gave the opening address on Tuesday night. Prof. W. W. Sweet, of DePauw University, spoke Wednesday night, and the climax was reached Thursday night with the Men's Banquet and auditorium service, attended by a company of laymen from the district, which filled the lecture room of the church. Addresses were given by Drs. Edgar Blake and W. S. Bovard. Following the banquet Bishop McDowell closed the Conference with a masterful address.

A Brief Survey of the Six Years.

Church Property.—14 churches have been built and rebuilt. Five new parsonages erected. Two parsonages rebuilt. Nearly every church and parsonage in the district has been improved and brought up to modern standards. There is no serious indebtedness except on the St. Paul Church, Elkhart. Church property valuation, exclusive of debt, has advanced from $427,661 in 1909, to $714,655 in 1915. A gain of $286,994, or 65 per cent for the period.

Ministerial Support.—Six years ago more than one-third of the charges paid salaries ranging from $150 to $625, only nine paid as much as $1,000. The highest salary was $2,000. Now only one charge pays less than $700 ($600), and only four less than $800; 29 pay $1,000 or more, five pay $2,000 or more; the highest being $2,700, paid by Mishawaka, which six years ago paid $1,800. Twelve circuits pay $1,000 or more, the highest being $1,300. Note the following:

Pastors' cash salaries	1909	$31,068
Pastors' cash salaries	1915	44,420
A gain of $13,352, or 44 per cent plus.
Pastors' salaries, including rent.....	1909	$36,010
Pastors' salaries, including rent.....	1915	50,570
A gain of $14,560, or 40 per cent plus.
Episcopal Fund	1909	$411
Episcopal Fund	1915	780
A gain of $369, or 90 per cent.

Conference Claimants	1909	$1,508
Conference Claimants	1915	3,092
Exclusive of Endowment Fund. A gain of $1,584, or 100 per cent.

Total ministerial support, pastors, bishops, Conference claimants, and district superintendent: 1909, $40,217; for 1915, $57,530. A gain of $17,313, or 43 per cent.

Benevolences.—Disciplinary Benevolences, including the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies: 1909, $9,769; 1910, $11,529; 1911, $13,534; 1912, $14,138; 1913, $16,305; 1914, $18,291; 1915, $21,035; a gain of $11,266, or $1,497 more than double. The showing for all benevolences—Disciplinary additional, other collections, etc.—gives us a range from $12,092 in 1909, to $43,183 in 1915, or a gain of $31,091.

Membership.—The membership has advanced from 9,400 to 12,916—a gain for the period of 35 per cent.

Six new charges have been organized, and three more are to be organized this year. No pastor has died; seven retired ministers and one wife of a retired minister have been called to the Church Triumphant.

—Bishop McDowell:—Six years ago one of your colleagues, Bishop Wm. F. Anderson, took me from a happy pastorate, and appointed me to Goshen District. I sometimes have wondered how I have gotten on at all. I could not have done anything worth while, had it not been for the guidance of the Great Head of the church, and the good, true, earnest, patient, efficient men who have so faithfully toiled with me through these years. Thanks be unto God for them all, and may his blessings in full measure abide with them all, and the loved ones of their hearts, to the end of their days.

LOGANSPOUT DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren:—The forty-three charges in the Logansport District all gave their pastor a hearty welcome at the beginning of the Conference year, and a spirit of cooperation and loyalty has continued to its close. F. O. Scurrah, the pastor at Bunker Hill, gave up his work December 1 because of ill health, and L. A. Beeks supplied the charge the remaining months of the year.

The tragic death of L. A. Hall and his young wife on a railroad crossing, February 18, left West Middleton without a pastor. Brother Hall was a promising young man, and his untimely death was a great loss to these suffering people, who the second time within a year lost their pastor by death. The funeral of this unfortunate couple was held at Tiosa, Indiana, conducted by the District Superintendent, and assisted by W. E. McPheeters, W. C. Asay, G. E. Hughes, and O. H. Berry. C. E. Dunlap supplied the charge till the close of the year.

Rev. H. N. Herrick, D.D., one of the best beloved men of our Conference, closed a long and useful career February 15, by quietly slipping out of this life to the home above. He was taken while in the midst of his great work of writing the History of the North Indiana Conference. The Conference will be forever indebted to him for the material so carefully gathered for this important work, but the book must now be completed by another.

His funeral took place in Grace Church, Kokomo, in charge of J. C. White, the pastor. Those who took part in the service were Bishop David H. Moore, L. A. Beeks, C. U. Wade, M. S. Marble, J. A. Sprague, C. E. Line, P. J. Allbright, C. H. Brown, W. D. Parr, and others. There were fifty-four ministers present.

S. J. Mellinger, a retired member of the Conference, died, after a few hours illness, June 30, 1914. His funeral was at Market Street Church, Logansport—conducted by the pastors of Logansport, and assisted by other members of the Conference.

New Charges Organized.—In organizing the charges for the work of the Conference year some distinctly new lines were followed. Two country churches became stations, and organized for aggressive work with a pastor all to themselves. Richland Chapel had been a part of Amboy circuit, paying $243 for ministerial support, with preaching once in two weeks. They now have the full time of their pastor, paying $900 for ministerial support, besides paying the pastor's rent. A two days' Institute was held in February. One day was devoted to rural church life, and the other to the social and industrial life of the community. The pastor, Leroy Myers, is the big man in this community.

Alto is the other church to try this new plan. They now support a pastor themselves much easier than they formerly paid the small amount necessary on the circuit plan. Harry B. Fisher, the pastor, has kept this church going at a lively pace for the whole year. They have doubled their Sunday school and congregations, bought a new piano, put in electric lights and new church Hymnals. A two days' Institute was also held in this church with splendid results. The pastor has been fortunate in securing a new wife for the parsonage home, and we will expect still better things for the future.

Bethlehem, a country church on the Twelve Mile charge, becomes a station for the coming year. They will pay their pastor $800 cash salary and furnish a parsonage. C. A. Byrt, the pastor, is closing a very successful year on this charge; 120 have been converted, and 70 united with the church. Bethel, the other point on the charge, will be placed with Anoka, and thus a new charge will be formed with a pastor living in Logansport. Florida will build a parsonage this coming year, preparatory to becoming a station the year following.

New Churches and Parsonages.—Skillman church was dedicated by the District Superintendent, September 6, 1914. This church cost $3,800, and was three years in building. The every member canvass has been such a success that this point will double their amount for ministerial support for next year. O. M. Hunt is the pastor.

Pleasant Hill, on the Gilead charge, where C. B. Thomas is pastor, dedicated a new church, costing $4,000, October 11. Of this amount $1,425 was raised on the day of dedication. The church is modern, with ample basement for social purposes.

The church at Aroma, where E. C. Fisher is pastor, has been rebuilt at a cost of $2,000. Some of the things added were a new alcove for pulpit and choir, modern windows and seats, a new carpet, and a basement and furnace. It was reopened December 27, when all needed money was raised. A revival followed, in which thirty-five souls were converted.

The first Sunday of the Conference year the new and beautiful parsonage at Bunker Hill was dedicated. $800 was raised to complete all payments on the same. This very convenient and attractive home was built while F. A. Scurrah was the pastor, and will remain a monument to his good taste and faithful work.

H. L. Liddle has accomplished many good things for the Goldsmith charge, but the one thing that will help the material interests more than anything else, is the building of a splendid new parsonage. It cost $3,500, and is one of the best parsonage homes in the district. It was dedicated August 3d, with all bills paid in full.

One of the neatest and best arranged little parsonage homes was built by W. E. McPheeters at Miami. It cost $1,700, and was paid for by the people of Miami and Bennetts. These two points will become a charge by themselves next year, and pay a pastor $800 cash salary. The revivals resulted in 133 conversions, and in 136 being added to the church.

Arcadia, through the leadership of the pastor, M. L. Hardingham, purchased a convenient and a desirable home for a parsonage at a cost of $1,350, of which amount about half is paid, and the balance provided for.

A good home for a parsonage has been purchased at West Middleton at a cost of $2,000. A debt of $700 remains unprovided for, but will be taken care of by this faithful people.

Sharpsville has frescoed and otherwise improved their church during the year at a cost of $900, all of which is fully paid. W. C. Asay is the energetic pastor.

Extensive improvements were made on the Akron church. A. L. Weaver, the pastor, secured the making of an excellent basement under the church. The salary was raised to $1000 and house.

When Everett Nixon became pastor of Beamer Chapel in Kokomo, one year ago, he found the church disorganized and discouraged, with the foreclosure of a mortgage staring them in the face. He gathered a congregation and Sunday school together, and by his own efforts raised money to pay for all the debts, to re-roof and paper the church, to buy a new piano, and held his own revivals, which resulted in 133 conversions, and increased the church membership 240 per cent. The Sunday school has grown to 200. The salary and all other bills are paid in full.

At Market Street, Logansport, $1,850 was raised for improvements, debts, and interest. The net gain in membership has been 82. H. L. Overdeer is having a very profitable pastorate with this wide awake people.

At Peru the church has been redecorated and improved in many ways. The entire cost, including street improvement, is $1,800. Dr. T. M. Guild leaves this church in the best condition it has ever been. The membership has grown to 900. The Sunday school has an average of 501, and one of the greatest men's Bible classes in the State.

A porch and summer kitchen has been built in the parsonage at Converse, where J. J. Fischer is the pastor.

Renewals and Church Membership.—Dr. Lyon held meetings early in the Conference year at Logansport and Kokomo. Many were converted, and the churches were greatly helped. The ingathering was not as great as in other cities, where meetings were held earlier in the season. One of the good things about the revivals this year is, that so many were held by the pastors themselves.

Besides the revivals already mentioned, there has been a great revival at Windfall, where W. E. Hamilton is the pastor. There were about 60 conversions, and a truly great awakening in the church. The debt of this church has been reduced $6,000 this year.

A. C. Hoover has had a great revival at Hillisburg, and also at Florida, in which 70 were converted. A new life has come to this charge, and the prospect seems good for building a new church at each point, and a new parsonage at Florida. They have already set Brother Hoover's salary at $900 for next year.

At Amboy, Guy H. Black held his own meeting, and 59 were converted. This church has the largest crowd of young people to be found in any small town in the community.

Elwood had a good revival, in which 33 were converted. This church has had a good year in many ways. The salary was never paid so promptly, and the congregations were never better.

L. M. Krider reports 47 conversions at Greentown, and has had a good year. Over $300 was raised for improvements.

The largest gains in membership are at Denver, Broadway, Logansport; Main Street, Kokomo; Market Street, Logansport, and Wheatland Street, Logansport, where E. C. Dunn is closing his seventh year as pastor. The church is in fine spirit, and desire their pastor for the eighth year. There have been 1,940 conversions during the year, and 2,135 have been added to the church membership. The net increase will be 1,138. Everywhere men are becoming more active in the church and religious work.

Ministerial Support.—Wherever the every member canvass has been made, and the Duplex envelopes used, there has been a very great change for the better in our finances. Twenty-one churches increased the salaries of their pastors this year. The total amount of increase is $3,160. During two years the salaries have increased $6,000, and the coming year promises a still greater advance. There will be but four pastors next year getting less than $800. The following pastors have shared in the increases of this year: A. L. Weaver, H. B. Fisher, C. W. Montgomery, W. H. Jenkin, L. G. Jacobs, R. W. Rogers, G. E. Garrison, A. C. Hoover, J. A. Sprague, H. L. Overdeer, E. C. Dunn, O. M. Hunt, W. E. McPheeters, John Parker, LeRoy Myers, W. C. Asay, J. S. Newcombe, and W. M. Amos.

Benevolent Collections.—There will be an increase in the benevolent collections of the district amounting to about $2,000. Goldsmith still leads the list in per capita giving for these causes. Their many tithers enable them to stay at the head of the list. Richland, the new country station, will rank second this year, with $2.12 per member. The benevolences of the district have increased twenty-three per cent in the two years.

Sunday Schools.—The Sunday School Board at Chicago held a Sunday school Institute for the district at Grace church, Kokomo, October 20 and 21. Dr. Wilson had charge of the program, and the speakers were all trained workers. It was a success. The interest was intense, the attendance was great. The auditorium of Grace Church was filled for two days with people from every part of the district. L. G. Jacobs, the pastor at Denver, which is 38 miles from Kokomo, brought a delegation of 114 people in automobiles. Three schools outside of Kokomo had all their teachers and officers present. No department of our church in the Logansport district is doing better work than the Sunday schools.

The largest Sunday school in the district at the present time is at Main Street, Kokomo, where J. A. Sprague is pastor. The average attendance for the past quarter is 701. This church has had a remarkable development in the past six years. The membership has more than doubled. The benevolences have increased in like manner. The salary has grown from $1,100 to $1,800; besides this the new church has been built.

The Epworth League.—The Epworth League Convention held in Peru in June voted to pay the salary of J. F. Cottingham, a district superintendent in the Philippine Islands, and enough was subscribed to pay this amount. The Leagues of the district are not as large as in former years, but I think they are doing better work than ever before. When a competent and consecrated Junior League superintendent can be found, the work is a great blessing to the children, but unfortunately every church can not produce the person who is willing to accept this hard task.

Ladies' Aid Society.—The Ladies' Aid Societies of the district have raised $13,000 this year. It is hard to tell what some of the churches would do if this very helpful society should go out of existence. They are a present help in time of need.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society have fifteen auxiliaries in the district, with a membership of 450. They more than met their pledge for the past year, and are doing much to broaden the vision of the people concerning the work of Christ's kingdom.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society now have nineteen auxiliaries with a membership of 709. They have paid their pledge in full, and have organized three new societies.

The district this year raised $23,500 in cash for building and improving churches and parsonages. Also $20,061 was paid on debts. The debts of Logansport District, that long have been an excuse for withholding money that rightfully belongs to our great world movements, will soon be out of the way. Twenty-two of the charges will report a debt varying in size from $40 to $11,000. All but one of these charges could pay their debt during the coming year, if they would make the proper effort. Many of them will do so.

I am greatly indebted to LeRoy Myers, the President of the District Epworth League, for his faithful service. And to J. A. Sprague, the district Missionary secretary, for valuable help in our missionary campaign. To Geo. E. Garrison, for much needed help in bringing our Sunday schools into better missionary organization and effort. To Mrs. H. L. Liddle, for aiding the teacher training work of the district. I am profoundly grateful to all the pastors for their loyal support in making this year's work a success, and to the heavenly Father for his tender mercy and care.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

C. E. Line, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In this Fifth Annual Report, I greatly rejoice to announce that during the Conference year there has not been a death in a single parsonage home, nor among the retired preachers of the district.

Retired Preachers.—We have twelve retired brethren living within the bounds of the district. Their general health has been good during the year. Brother and Sister Ervin have spent the winter in Florida. Brother and Sister P. J. Albright moved from Pendleton to Kokomo.

Births.—During the year a daughter was born to Brother and Sister P. H. Walter of Jolietville, and a son to Brother and Sister C. B. Brooks of Westfield. May the lives and health of these little folks be precious to the Great Giver of all life!

Changes.—Soon after Conference, with the consent of Bishop Bristol, Bishop McDowell transferred Gilbert D. Cleworth, of First Church, Anderson, to Burlington, Iowa; and Eugene Allen from Burlington to Anderson.

Immediately after Conference, Arthur Howell, who was appointed to Noblesville Circuit, was transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference. During the year A. G. Kiger has supplied this charge with great acceptability.

Last fall, G. H. Redding was transferred to the Vermont Conference, and John Jones, of that Conference, was transferred to our Conference. Yorktown has been delighted with the service of Brother John Jones, and earnestly requests his return.

District Meetings.—The District Epworth League Convention was held in Grace Church, Hartford City. The program was a strong one, and the attendance was the best for years. Bishop Quayle was present, and delivered two great and unique addresses. During the year the District Cabinet has held three rallies, one at First Church, Anderson; the second at Madison Street, Muncie; and the third at Park Place, Anderson. The District Superintendent delivered the address at the first rally; Dr. Eugene Allen at the second rally; and Dr. L. M. Edwards at the third rally. These rallies proved to be of great profit to the leagues of the district.

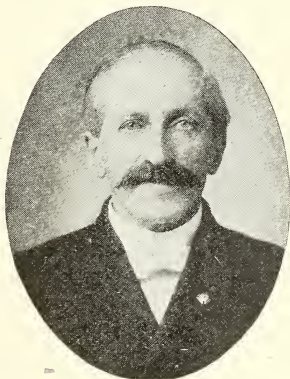

The Sunday School Institute, conducted by the Board of Sunday Schools, was held in High Street Church, Muncie, last October. Dr. Edgar Blake, Harry C. Wilson, Miss Helen P. Patton, and Arlo A. Brown constituted the faculty. This Institute gave a new impetus to the Sunday-school work of the district, and was a great inspiration to the Sunday-school workers.

The campaign to increase the information concerning the interest in the benevolences was begun by the itinerary of Miss Bertha Creek of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, who delivered addresses in twenty-eight charges on our Missionary work in India. In this itinerary, Miss Creek organized eight new auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; two bands of Standard Bearers; and two Children's Societies;—making twelve in all. Miss Creek rendered valuable service for the Board of Foreign Missions and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

This itinerary was followed in November by five great Group Meetings, held at Noblesville, Alexandria, Anderson, Muncie, and Hartford City. Bishop David H. Moore, Fred B. Fisher, F. N. Wright, George F. Sutherland, James M. Taylor, and H. R. Calkins constituted the team. The team work was splendid; every part of the district was reached; every pastor, without a single exception, was present; prominent laymen attended; missionary literature was sold; all of which increased our missionary zeal on the district.

The Revival Conference was held in First Church, Anderson, November 23d. It was a day of great inspiration. Fred B. Fisher, F. N. Wright, and Wentworth F. Steward, an evangelist of Boston, were on the program. Many laymen from the district, and visitors from other districts, encouraged us by their presence.

The District Conference was held in First Church, Alexandria, March 1 to 3. It was considered the best District Conference ever held in the district. Bishop McDowell, Dr. Blake, and Dr. Bovard rendered valuable service in their team work in the interests of the Men's Bible Class Movement in our Sunday schools.

C. E. Line.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The Preachers' Aid Campaign was taken up again by the method of having the pastors go over the field, two by two. About sixteen hundred dollars more was added to the district subscription, bringing the total up to $6,657.00.

Salaries.—Only one charge decreased its pastor's salary; 24 charges retained the same salaries as last year; and 13 charges increased their pastors' salaries, as follows:

Albany circuit	$100 00
Park Place and Daleville	100 00
De Soto	100 00
Eaton	100 00
Fortville	100 00
Hartford City circuit	222 00
Jolietville	239 00
Avondale	50 00
Madison Street	100 00
Normal City	150 00
Whiteley	325 00
Shideler	50 00
Westfield	150 00

Every Member Canvass.—Thus far thirty-one charges out of the thirty-eight have adopted the Every Member Canvass. Twenty-two charges have already made or are making the canvass for next year.

New Churches.—About a year ago, Zion Church, on the Summitville circuit, was burnt down. A beautiful new church has been built upon the same site. October 25, 1914, it was dedicated by Dr. John C. White, assisted by the pastor, B. R. Pogue, and F. M. Lacey, a former pastor, and the district superintendent. Dr. White managed the finances, and in a very brief time more money than was necessary to cover the indebtedness was raised.

Since its organization, the little, courageous band of Park Place, Anderson, has been worshipping in a little cottage owned by the society, but under the skillful management of the pastor, J. A. Ruley, these people have built a beautiful new church, costing $5,000.00. It was dedicated March 14, 1915, by Dr. W. D. Parr, who kept up his reputation as a money raiser at dedications. More money was raised than asked for. During the summer the cottage will be transformed into a parsonage, and this church is asked to become a station.

Church and Parsonage Improvements.—First Church, Anderson, has taken an advance step in providing for the youth of the church. It will surrender the present parsonage to the Boys' work. It has bought the adjoining property, just south of the church, at a cost of $4,500. The house is now rented, but the ultimate plan will be to build an annex on the rear of this lot for a gymnasium and Bible class rooms, and in time a new parsonage will be purchased or built.

Middletown has repaired the basement of the church at a cost of $700.

Shideler has made improvements at a cost of $613.00.
Eaton, $600; and Selma, $500.

The following charges report improvements amounting from $300 to $500.

Hartford City circuit	$470 00
Normal City	425 00
Perkinsville	395 00
Noblesville circuit	360 00
Pendleton	300 00

The following charges between $100 and $300:

Matthews	$295 00
Fortville	240 00
Noblesville	230 00
Albany Circuit	225 00
Lapel	210 00
Alexandria	200 00
High Street	200 00
First Church	150 00
New Burlington	150 00
Whiteley	140 00
Fishers	120 00
Indiana Avenue	100 00

Ten charges report improvements costing less than $100.

The total church and parsonage improvements amount to $20,611, of which $13,615 was paid. These repairs consist in new furnaces, furnace repairs, roofing, new platforms, papering, plumbing, carpeting, fencing, cement walks, wiring, bath room fixtures, renovating seats, building flues, new porch, new window sills, new stoves, screens, electric lights, pianos, new well, frescoe, hitch racks, and general repairs.

Old Debts.—Notwithstanding the industrial depression, a considerable sum of money, $6,403, has been paid on old debts, leaving the indebtedness on church and parsonage property in the district a little over $27,000.

The following charges report the following amounts paid on old debts:

First Church, Anderson	$1,200 00
High Street, Muncie	1,200 00
Yorktown	911 00
Perkinsville	700 00
Grace Church, Anderson	534 00
Carmel	422 00
Noblesville	250 00
Noble Street	200 00
Avondale	175 00
Gaston	100 00

I wish to speak particularly of Avondale, where the industrial depression has been felt. Notwithstanding the industrial depression, the mortgage was burned with great rejoicing, and for the first time since the dedication of this church, twenty-one years ago, it is free of debt. It is due much to the generalship of its pastor, D. C. Beatty, and the loyalty and faithfulness of the Ladies' Aid Society.

Auxiliaries of the Church.—Sunday schools:—The seventy-six Sunday schools in the district show a larger enrollment, with 903 in the Home Department and 1,022 enrolled on the Cradle Roll. In these Sunday schools there are 60 Men's Adult Bible Classes, with an enrollment of 1,725; 58 Ladies' Bible Classes, with an enrollment of 1,224; 44 Mixed Bible Classes, men and women, with an enrollment of 1,374. No longer does the idea prevail that the Sunday school is only for the children and women. The enrollment of the Men's Adult Bible Classes shows five hundred more men enrolled in these classes than women enrolled in the Ladies' Bible Classes. In a number of the churches the problem is, how to provide adequate space for the increased Sunday-school attendance. Last year, the Sunday schools of the district reached the highest water mark in their giving to missions.

Epworth Leagues.—There are twenty-six chapters in the District with a membership of 1,373. These chapters gave this year $534 to missions. They have given flowers to the sick, dinners for the poor, paid on pastor's salary, to church buildings, to the Methodist Hospital Building Fund, to the War Relief Fund, and to local charity. There are two intermediate chapters in the district—one at First Church, Anderson, and the other at Yorktown.

Junior Leagues.—There are 19 Junior League chapters, with a membership of 841. Some of these chapters are giving to missions.

Methodist Brotherhood.—There are five chapters of the Methodist Brotherhood, with a membership of 370.

Ladies' Aid Societies.—There are fifty-five of these societies in the district. This year they have raised $8,841.

Woman's Foreign Missionary and Woman's Home Missionary Societies.—Of the former there are 25 auxiliaries, and of the latter seven auxiliaries in the district. These noble women are doing a great work for the kingdom.

Church Literature.—The pastors report 866 Western Christian Advocates taken, with many other Advocates; 308 Epworth Heralds; 2,072 Sunday School Advocates; 2,859 Sunday School Classmates; and 922 Sunday School Journals.

Pastoral Labors.—This has been a busy year with the pastors. They worked very hard. They have preached 5,034 times, prepared 1,990 new sermons; made 23,302 pastoral visits; baptized 788 adults, 232 children; officiated at 424 funerals; and married 256 couples.

Benevolences.—On account of the financial depression, it has been more difficult to raise benevolences this year than last year. Last year all of the charges except three made a gain in the disciplinary benevolences. I am satisfied that when the Treasurer's report comes in, that there will be a gain of about $2,000 in the benevolences.

Two special gifts have been made this year to DePauw University. One of $12,000 by George W. Maring, and one of $5,000 by Hardin Roads. There are some interesting figures concerning the percentage of gain from 1896 to 1914. During this period the membership in the district made a gain of twenty-nine per cent; the pastors' salaries a gain of thirty-one per cent; but the gain in the missionary offerings is 108 per cent. We hear it declared that if we push the missionary interests with enthusiasm that it injures the other benevolent causes, but this is not the fact, for while the missionary offering during this period made a gain of 108 per cent, the offerings to the other benevolences made a gain of 134 per cent, but it is with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society where we find the greatest gain during this period. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society made a gain of 451 per cent, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society a gain of 264 per cent; and yet at the same time these women were giving to the Parent Board also, and yet some of the brethren do not believe in Woman Suffrage.

Temperance.—The interest in this great subject has not decreased, but has been intensified. Hartford City is facing a local option election, in which we hope and pray that the Drys will win.

The Hobson Bill was defeated in Congress. The thirteen Indiana Congressmen voted against it. Some of these Congressmen, who represent dry districts, are trying to explain their votes. Let it be known that no Congressman can vote on this side of the liquor interests, and then come home and try to explain his vote and ask for the votes of dry Christian men.

Civic Righteousness.—Many of our cities are corrupt in their city government. Men who occupy official positions in these cities, who have taken oath to enforce the law, disregard their oath and use their office for personal gain through graft. We are on the eve of a national revival of a pure and undefiled religion. This religion does not mean that a man can go to prayer meeting on Wednesday or Thursday night, and sing "Hallelujah" or "Glory to God," and then on Tuesday go to the polls and vote for ungodly Wet men. A pure religion means a clean ballot as well as a clean heart.

Membership.—This has been a great year again for the increase in membership of the churches in the Muncie District. The pastors report 14,283 members on the roll, a gain of 1,124 over last year, which is eight and one-half per cent gain, almost equal to that of last year.

They report 771 probationers on the roll, making the entire membership 15,054—a large gain over last year.

Twenty-seven charges report a gain in membership, and eleven a decrease. The most notable gains are these: Perkinsville, 60 per cent; Whiteley, 55 per cent; Avondale, 27 per cent; Middletown, 37 per cent; Hartford City, 35 per cent; Noblesville circuit, 31 per cent; Noblesville 26 per cent; Park Place and Daleville, 17 per cent; and First Church, Alexandria, 14 per cent.

Evangelism.—Three great tabernacle meetings have been held within the bounds of the district; two of them were conducted by Rev. Bob Jones at Noblesville, and the other at Hartford City; the other tabernacle meeting was held by the Stevens-Stores party at Alexandria. The results of these tabernacle meetings have been deep and far reaching.

The pastors have held 80 revival meetings this year, giving 1,720 days to this work. They report 1,249 accessions on probation; 913 from probation; and 504 by letter; and 2080 conversions.

These charges make the following report of the number of conversions:

Grace Church, Hartford City, E. E. Trippeer	334
Noblesville, F. A. Hall	300
First Church, Alexandria, D. V. Williams	200
Perkinsville, B. E. Jones	179
High Street, W. W. Martin	125
Noblesville circuit, A. G. Kiger	110

The charges between 50 and 100:

Hartford City circuit, R. I. Stone and R. W. Knight	75
Carmel, H. E. Forbes	69
Park Place and Daleville, J. A. Ruley	60
Middletown, L. E. Markin	60
Avondale, D. C. Beatty	58
Matthews, L. Huddleston	55
Alexandria Circuit, A. E. Chastain	55

The charges between 25 and 50:

First Church, Anderson, Eugene Allen	40
Madison Street, P. E. Greenwalt	39
Whiteley, H. A. Kirk	35
New Burlington, J. L. Murr	30
Desoto, E. E. DeWitt	28
Eaton, J. A. Patterson	26

Charges between 10 and 25:

Shideler, G. F. Osbun	23
Grace Church, Anderson, B. W. Lewis	20
Noble Street, B. S. Jones	20
Gaston, C. B. Dougherty	18

Fortville, W. W. Wiant	15
Albany circuit, C. M. Hobbs	14
Fishers, Herbert Perry	13
Summitville circuit, B. R. Pogue	12
Yorktown, John Jones	12
Selma, J. F. Lutey	10

Seven charges report less than 10 conversions, and two not a conversion. Many of the pastors conducted their own evangelistic services. Some of the pastors were assisted by other pastors. Other pastors had evangelists.

Dr. W. W. Martin, of High Street Church, was assisted in his meeting by Dr. Wentworth F. Stewart, of Boston. One of the most remarkable meetings in the whole district was at Harvey's Chapel, on the Perkinsville charge, conducted by the pastor, Bert E. Jones. There had not been a revival in this church for twenty-nine years. This illustrates what the Holy Ghost can do for an un-spiritual church.

Taking it all in all, this has been a great year for the Muncie District. The results of the year's work are a proof that Jesus Christ our Lord is still mighty to save and strong to deliver, and the Holy Ghost has lost none of His power to convict men of sin and of righteousness, and of judgment. For the year's work and its successes all glory belongs to our heavenly Father. To Him be all the praise and all the glory.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

William B. Freeland, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

"What is true at last will tell:
Few at first will place the well;
Some too low would have thee shine,
Some too high—no fault of thine—
Hold thine own, and work thy will."

Richmond District has eighty-three churches, which are served and directed by thirty-five pastors. Ten of our churches are in the city, and seventy-three are in the country. Other religious bodies have 229 churches within the same territory. Our seventy-nine Sunday schools have an enrollment of 12,500. The membership reports are in the aggregate almost 11,000. Thirty-four Epworth Leagues enroll 1,400 members; and fifteen Junior chapters have 656 members. There are fifteen Woman's Home Missionary Societies; nineteen Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies; and sixty-four Ladies' Aid Societies.

One year ago thirty-five questing men went out from the Annual Conference to the work of the Christian ministry within our territory. Rev. Henry W. Miller, of the Charlottesville charge, was transferred to the West Wisconsin Conference September 15. His work was assumed by Rev. M. A. Harlan, who has successfully completed the work of the year. October 15, Rev. B. Earle Parker, of First Church, Richmond, was relinquished to First Church, Marion. In connection with this change, I was much impressed with the value of our Episcopacy, which placed the Rev. Harry Curtin Harmon, of Evanston, Illinois, in charge at Richmond without loss of time or service. Within ninety days he had called upon the entire membership, and had received a number into the church. We welcome him to our fraternity. November 1, J. N. Simmons, of Kennard, was released to enter DePauw University, and the interests of the charge were committed to Rev. E. C. Hallman, who was in a supernumerary relation. W. J. Huffman, of Farmland, withdrew under complaints February 1, and his work was taken by the veteran, Joseph B. Cook. He has closed the work in good condition. In the closing days of the Conference year, R. I. Black, of Saratoga, was summoned to appear before a committee on the charge of intoxication, and after a candid inquiry had been made, he was suspended until the meeting of the Annual Conference.

The two devotees of single blessedness have both deserted the ranks. On Thanksgiving Day it was my happy task to unite in marriage Rev. Charles W. Anderson, of Shirley, to Miss Mary Overman. The ceremony was celebrated in the home of the bride's parents at Wilkinson. Everyone thinks the merger will be well. Rev. E. A. Bunner and Miss Stella Stant were joined in holy wedlock, March 31, in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Dublin. In this instance I was ably assisted by the Rev. R. C. Ballard, the pastor. Our homes have been spared any and all visits of the Destroying Angel. The blood-bespattered lintels have given mute rebuke to his journeys. Rev. Oliver P. VanY submitted to a painful operation in November, but is restored. We are very grateful that there have been few cases of protracted illness in our parsonages.

Margaret Alice strayed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mitchell, at Centreville, June 20. "Trailing clouds of glory," came Mary Elizabeth to the parsonage dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. B. Earle Parker, August 28. Harold Taylor, vigorous viking, took possession of the hearts and the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hallman, November 27. The song of life hath its added charm because of their coming.

Our district meeting was held May 12. It was a "setting up" meeting for our year's work. Doctor Daniel McGurk, of Dayton, Ohio, gave an inspiring address in the evening. June 22-24, at Dunkirk, was held the district Epworth League convention. Professor J. W. Kendall, of Greenfield, the president, had a good program well in hand; the address of President Grose led many of the young people to a larger self-discovery. The occasion was marked by an increased interest in the subject of Foreign Missions. The chapters subscribed $600 to the work of the North Pekin District. The early autumn saw the largest and most enthusiastic series of sub-district rallies at any time within the history of the district. Captains Smith, Trabue, Naftzger, Bridge, and Runke led their braves to the diamond, and were greeted by the largest paid attendance ever known. The previous year had been a record breaker, but they almost doubled their reports of attendance. The bleachers were highly edified, and the 6,174 (including Indians not taxed) promised to come again. The District Lyceum at Union City, October 6 and 7, marked the attendance of almost every pastor. The local people came in goodly numbers. The program was well sustained, and the address of Doctor Wareing was appreciated.

We have found some benefit in our plan of Bureau Work as organized at the district meeting. Illuminating circulars have been prepared and sent out by the bureaus on Finance, Evangelism, and

W. B. Freeland.

Rural Work. Other committees represent the work among the young people, among men, and a sixth committee proposes to investigate the matter of public worship, with regard to the hymns, the order, and the various particulars of that important work of the pastors.

Our retired preachers have exercised the spirit beautiful. Reuben T. Laslie writes from his home at Hardinsburg, Kentucky, that he has preached a few times. He hopes to begin work as a teacher soon. Lewis P. Pfeifer has been very helpful in the home church at Salamonina, and is now in position to ask to be made effective again. Sylvester Billheimer has served the people at Third Church, Richmond, well for almost two years. Failing health of himself and wife compels him to retire to his permanent home near Hagerstown for rest. Hugh J. Norris, Winchester; George H. Hill, Indianapolis; Frank G. Browne and Milton Mahin, Newcastle, linger in the shadows. For them the eventide is beautiful. Up the river of Time are the magical isles, peopled with the many to whom they have ministered in blessing. The downward current leads to the mansions prepared for them. They look before without fear; they look backward without regret.

Our salaries continue to show increases. This fact, together with prudent care in placing pastors, and with careful groupings of our appointments, will improve our personnel year by year. Dunkirk has added $300; Centerville $100 (by adding appointment); Charlottes-ville $100 (by annexation); Lewisville, Winchester, Ridgeville, and Grace Church, Richmond, have added $100 each. Deerfield, Maxwell, Hagerstown, and Farmland, $50 each. Philadelphia adds $75, and Williamsburg surrendered $275, and reimbursed itself besides adding $50 more. It is the present plan for next year to realize nine or ten substantial advances. A few lessons in old-fashioned honesty would be wholesome, and persuade men to pay for their ministerial service with the same grace with which they honor other obligations. At the same time it would remand the contents of the ministerial bargain counter to the junk house.

The benevolences have been carefully promoted by our pastors. Last year the Disciplinary benevolences were $759 in advance of the previous year. Foreign Missions gained ten per cent, and Home Missions gained six per cent. This year will show a further increase over the previous report. Advance reports, which are probably conservative, lead me to believe that in Foreign Missions the gain will be about ten per cent additional. The gain in Home Missions will be larger comparatively, while the remaining causes will show a corresponding growth. Our increases in the benevolences result from careful, systematic work on the part of the pastors, and our gains are relatively substantial. We are in the third place in our gifts per capita; Goshen and Fort Wayne Districts only exceed the per capita offerings of the Disciplinary benevolences.

At Centerville the need of a parsonage has been pronounced for many years. Different attempts at financing the enterprise had been made, but they had failed. The pastor decided that the better plan would be to erect the house, and let the people see what they had; they could then pay for it with more concreteness. It was dedicated in the autumn, and Rev. H. C. Harmon was the orator of the day. The valuation is about $2,000, of which more than one-half has been paid. On the Modoc charge, Rev. E. H. Taylor has worked hard on a similar enterprise. The old parsonage was at Huntsville, about five miles from the railroad. The Board of Trustees decided to build the new house at Modoc. The new house will be completed May 1, and represents a cost of $2,500 at least.

The trustees at Millgrove have voted to remodel the church building at a cost of possibly $3,000. Dunkirk has installed a pipe-organ, and plans to make some extensive change in the building, which can not accommodate the Sunday school. The church at Dublin, through the munificence of Sister Hageman, has fitted up a basement at a cost of $800. Williamsburg has done likewise, and added a heating plant, which makes the improvement cost a like sum. Knightstown has redecorated, put in hard-wood floors, and installed a modern light plant. The whole expenditure represents $1,400. Newcastle people have re-decorated their building in a creditable manner also, and the outlay represents the payment of $1,500. At Winchester the church has been beautifully finished and ornamented, and an expensive steam heating plant increases the cost of the enterprise to $2,700. Work has commenced on a new church building at New Dayton, near Winchester. The plucky men who are guiding the work will erect a pretty building for about $4,000. On the Farmland charge, the Rehoboth Church was rebuilt and completely transformed. The expense was $2,300, and the pastor and committee had managed so well, that no money was raised on the day of dedication except a thank offering for benevolent purposes. The day was unpleasant; nevertheless the house was filled, and the district superintendent had the pleasure of dedicating the building on the scene of former labors. August 9, the beautiful new church at Maxville, on the same charge, was dedicated by Doctor B. S. Hollopeter. The day was fair; the service was impressive; and the people responded in a manner to insure the payment of the $2,200 to free the church of the obligations incurred. Generous gifts from L. W. Green, J. W. Clayton, and Mrs. L. N. Davis had been made previously. It is one of the very best rural churches in the entire Conference, and the total cost is $12,500.

Very early in the Conference year, Rev. L. E. Honeywell conducted a tabernacle meeting at Union City, with good results. "Bob" Jones and his helpers laid siege to Winchester. A number of accessions came to the churches, as did at Greenfield, where Doctor C. L. Hall was leader in a similar movement. A few of our pastors were assisted by evangelists; but the feeling is growing among us, that so many evangelists are very poor arithmeticians. Peter was the first to count his converts as far as we know; but the flush of Pentecost was not sufficient to have him report ten thousand, when there were only three thousand converts. The following summary of reports of conversions will show a commendable emphasis of the redemptive gospel which Methodism preaches: Dunkirk, 104; Farmland, 100; Millgrove, 90; Winchester, 84; Union City, 83; Knightstown and McCordsville, 74 each; Maxwell, 73; Deerfield, 60; Greenfield, 56; Richmond, First Church, 55; Lynn and Williamsburg, 50 each; Redkey, 40; Kennard, 35; Spartanburg, 34; Richmond, Grace, 33. Four report between 20 and 30; seven, between 10 and 20; five, under ten; and two report no conversions. The total is 1,400. I note the larger number comparatively, who have entered the church where the pastor conducted his own meetings, as at Dunkirk, Millgrove, Maxwell, and Williamsburg.

Personally, I may say that I think the work and office of the district superintendent are very little understood. If a man is not aggressive, he is called a fifth wheel or a figure-head; if he attempts to be aggressive, he is too often the victim of ignorant criticism. The current offerings of the average district will exceed $100,000 annually; the membership is from 10,000 to 20,000 or more; investments in the church properties aggregate from one-half to three-quarters of a million. We must add mental, moral, and spiritual values to which the gathered millions of the gold of earth are infinitesimal. And yet the man who could not organize and manage a peanut stand is sometimes, in his own estimation, thoroughly competent to give barrels of gratuitous advice. The man who cannot get a grasp upon a vest-pocket job assumes to comprehend the gigantic and intricate problem of an office which is the most highly involved of any ecclesiastic task upon the planet. If the ministry and laity knew what could be done through a whole-hearted cooperation with the man who travels the district, a new order would be realized within a brief time. It is when I am conscious of this error in the minds of many, that I want to sing my swan song and to adjure my good friends to plant dog-fennel upon my grave.

Brethren, I have preached one hundred and fifty-eight times; held one hundred and forty-four Quarterly Conferences, each one with but a few exceptions calling for an address; I have read about forty books. The work has taxed my patience and my strength; but the Father has been kind, the Christ has been both example and inspiration, the Holy Spirit has been my paraclete. I have been holden up in spirit by the prayers and friendship of many. Striking and impressive incidents have occurred, which are too precious to relate. My words have been those of the law-giver: "If thy presence go not with us, carry us not up hence." The response has not promised stagnation; but He saith: "My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest!"

WABASH DISTRICT.

M. S. Marble, District Superintendent.

Mr. President and Brethren:—Two of our retired ministers received their "crown of righteousness"—Henry Bridge, of Huntington, useful, benevolent, patriotic, optimistic, of strict integrity; and J. B. Ford, of Oakland, Kansas, with many years of service, and at the last many months of patient waiting for the Master's "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Our preachers were deeply moved with sincere sympathy for Brother Leslie O. Winslow, whose wife with her babe of a few hours clasped in her arms was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery at Fairmount on December 7, 1914. She was a beautiful character, capable, resplendent with promise of great usefulness.

Pastoral Changes.—On June 23, 1914, Sanford McDonald relinquished the Roanoke charge. On September 16, D. W. Donaldson began serving this appointment, and continued till the close of the year.

On October 6, Bishop McDowell transferred Dr. J. F. Porter to the Rock River Conference, and appointed B. E. Parker as his successor at First Church, Marion. The members of this congregation were possessed of feelings of mingled surprise and regret in the loss of Dr. Porter, who was loved by all, and whose estimable family was held in the highest esteem. With perfect unanimity they welcomed Brother Parker, whose ability was immediately recognized, and whose services have been matched only by the cordiality with which he was received, and the loyal support faithfully rendered.

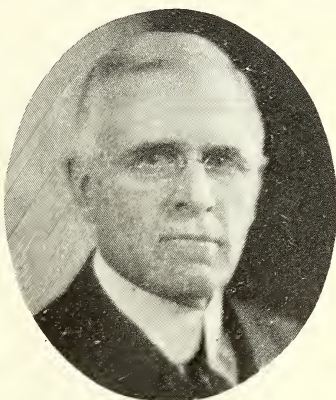

Policy.—At the beginning of the year the pastors and district stewards adopted a policy which has been of great value as an intellectual and spiritual stimulus in every charge. Progress has been made in the endeavor to realize its ideals.

Special Mention.—In addition to a successful Ministerial Institute and School of Methods at Claypool, on September 22 and 23, Settlement Day was observed in group meetings, November 30 and December 1, 2, and 3, at Andrews, Marion, and South Whitley. Representatives of the various chapters of the Epworth League were cordially received by the chapter at Fairmount in annual session in June. The Woman's Home Missionary Society held its annual meeting in Markle, and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in annual session was entertained by the auxiliary at Sweetser's. These two missionary organizations are indispensable factors in our work, and every pastor should have one or both in each congregation.

Unique Feature in Administration.—An interesting feature of administration has been the holding of joint Quarterly Conferences during the second and third quarters. These were held at Burket, Warren, Wabash, West Liberty, and Swayzee. The first, at West Liberty, on Sunday afternoon, was so successful, that the charges involved immediately and unanimously requested another at Swayzee for the third quarter. At the request of an earnest, wide-awake layman, the whole day was set apart for the Quarterly Conference. This necessitated a big program. Our major was Sunday School Efficiency. Dr. Blake, secretary of the Board of Sunday Schools, sent us his "efficiency expert," Dr. Harry C. Wilson, whose presence was an inspiration. By ten o'clock the joint session was "speeding up," and all were experiencing the exhilaration of a spiritual atmosphere. Reports prepared the way for Dr. Wilson's address. Then came the holy communion, which was followed by a brief time for luncheon. Then came other reports, introductions of visiting pastors and church officers, a brief address by B. E. Parker, Conference president of Epworth League, and the closing address of Dr. Wilson. Adjournment came at four o'clock, giving the pastors opportunity to carry the information, inspiration and enthusiasm of the day to their evening audiences. At night Dr. Wilson addressed a crowded house in Marion, while the district superintendent hurried to Sims for an evening service, returning to Marion in time to witness Dr. Wilson's round table interview with 200 earnest, deeply interested church workers, who had tarried for instruction. In this manner our "efficiency man" was able to reach at least 1,000 people from both country and city in one day with the latest word on religious educational methods, while the district superintendent circulated hundreds of tracts, and sold twenty-six of the best books on the subject.

On invitation of the Wabash Street Quarterly Conference, the three Quarterly Conferences in Wabash joined in session early in January in the Wabash Street Church. Our reception was warm-hearted and whole-hearted. After a supper that would have been a joy to the most ravenous epicure, the Conferences were in order. Rapid fire service began immediately, and continued till the last note of victory was sounded at ten o'clock. What an opportunity for a district superintendent, with almost 100 of the choicest laymen of the church, constructive leaders among the moral and religious forces of the city, before him! He heard and complimented reports; called attention to the diversified forms of church endeavor; educational, philanthropic, evangelistic, claims of the retired minister; the local church; our benevolent Boards; how we get our apportionments (a thing too few preachers understand), illustrating the same with numerous charts, some prepared by the General Conference Commission on Finance, but most of them by himself, showing the status of church life in various churches in his own district. Of course, intellectual and spiritual life was quickened as manifested by many inquiries which received a glad welcome and a cheerful response by the district superintendent. Brethren! Contrast this with a Quarterly Conference of "ye olden time" composed of two or three overburdened women, and one or two pious brethren, possibly failures in business, struggling with the ever present quarterly church deficit, and wondering where the money is to come from! Deficits are rare where duty has been faithfully and efficiently performed. Deficits should not worry us overmuch. Others will care for them; but the cause of deficits should awaken and enlist our profoundest interest. An exhaustive analysis of "deficits" is precluded by the limits of this report. Suffice it to say, that pastoral inefficiency and neglect may be only one of many sources contributing to their cause. Where approved business methods are introduced and supported by the membership, we pay all bills promptly and have a surplus and a revival which increases our membership. This is done with the least possible expenditure of time and energy on the part of enterprising business men and farmers who are church officials. The secret lies in the wisdom with which forces are discovered, related and directed. The pastor who waits till the fourth Quarterly Conference is in session to select his board of stewards may reasonably expect a deficit the next year. He has successfully prepared the way for failure.

Development of Teaching Power.—To increase the teaching power of Sunday-school teachers, more than one hundred books were sold during the third round of Quarterly Conferences by the district superintendent. This work, if followed up by ambitious pastors and alert Sunday-school superintendents, will produce large results. Of all the laymen in the church the Sunday-school superintendent is favored with the broadest, most inviting field and the largest opportunity.

Building and Improving Church Property.—We note great activity in building and improving church property. Ninth Street, Marion, purchased a parsonage, having it conveyed to the Methodist Episcopal Church. Roanoke sold their parsonage, and invested the money in a new building a few feet west of the church. This building, modern in all respects, will be ready for the pastor on arrival. Jonesboro, VanBuren, Highland Ave., Talma, Palestine, Wabash Street, and others have made extensive improvements. Dr. W. D. Parr dedicated five churches, viz., Columbia City, Burket, Pilchers, Mount Pleasant, and First Church, Huntington. In each instance he surprised the trustees by placing in their hands more cash than they were expecting. In every case he placed the proper officer in possession of a good, merchantable subscription, which only disease, death, dishonesty or inexcusably weak business methods can impair. Of course the pastors did noble service. The improvement at Pilchers was a long, forward step for that community. Their wealth and intelligence justify greater things which will surely be realized. The Burket improvement affords opportunity to meet the social, moral, and religious needs of that prosperous community for many years hence. Mount Pleasant church in all its appointments is one of the most complete and attractive of any rural church in the Conference. It is a great honor to the people, and a determining factor in solving the country life problem.

Our church in Columbia City is a monument to heroic enterprise and conservative management. The membership are happy in their new possession. Our Huntington church was made possible by the munificent gift of $20,000, two costly windows, and a sweet toned chime of eleven bells, by Mrs. E. T. Taylor and family. Immediately after the dedicatory services the Lord gave them one of the most gracious revivals in their history, led by the pastor and official board.

New pipe organs have been installed at Wabash Street, and at Warren. The former costing $1,500, the latter an Esty, costing $2,500.

On March 27, a contract was signed for a new church at Lagro. Already this laudable enterprise is well under way. New churches are contemplated at Silver Lake and Uniondale. Andrews people are grappling with the problem of extensive repair or a new church.

The total destruction by fire of the beautiful, commodious, elegantly furnished, new church building at Rigdon on December 27, 1914, calls for a new church there this summer. In the meantime the I. O. O. F. of Rigdon have generously donated the use of their hall for religious services conducted by this unfortunate congregation.

Benevolences.—The growth of the spirit of genuine beneficence is a hopeful sign of spirituality. Our pastors are steadily leading the people to entertain as conscientious a regard for others as for themselves, and to make their offerings for others on a weekly basis. Advance reports indicate a gain of more than $1,000 for the Disciplinary benevolences. We have contributed $100 more than our apportionment for the St. Paul, Elkhart, church. Many of our churches and Sunday schools have made generous offerings for the war scourge. Our total for all benevolences is approximately $20,000. Our giving for all purposes aggregates more than $100,000. Let it be remembered that every dollar of this amount passes under the close scrutiny of the pastors and the careful observation of the district superintendent. The handling of trust funds by so many different persons makes the details of our work numerous and complicated. This has led the district superintendent at each fourth Quarterly Conference to insist that the auditing committee be prepared to report at the first Quarterly Conference next year.

Evangelism.—Last May, upon invitation of the General Conference Commission on Evangelism, I attended the biennial session of that body in the city of Detroit. Dr. Somerville Light was the secretary of the committee which drafted the church-wide program of evangelism. I was treated with great courtesy, and enjoyed active part in formulating that program. On my return I read it in nearly every Quarterly Conference, and by many it was adopted. Some of our pastors have enjoyed the realization of its ideals. Revivals have been general. The number of conversions reported is 2,520. The number of charges increasing their membership this year has advanced from 26 to 32, their total gain being 1,277. Seven charges report a total loss of 177, which makes our net gain 1,100. Each year we approach a little nearer the goal, which is a net gain of ten per cent for the district.

Prospective.—No district superintendent can expect his pastors to report something done and something planned to be done at each Quarterly Conference unless he employs his time and talents in like manner. Already extensive plans for intensive endeavor have been outlined for next year. Four group meetings with team work under the direction of Dr. Bovard, of the Methodist Brotherhood, will be held during the month of May. Our enthusiastic Epworthians will assemble in large numbers in Huntington in June. A great District Sunday School Institute will occur in Wabash in July. A Country Life Conference with special regard for circuits will be held in mid-summer. The District Ministerial Association and School of Methods will be in La Fontaine in September. A most intense campaign in the interest of our benevolent boards will occur in October. Settlement Days in September. Evangelistic campaign—always on—but then on in full force for the remainder of the year. This, in addition to the local program in every congregation, presents a challenge to every congregation to be at its best.

Closing Observations.—The district superintendent appreciates the work and worth of the Wabash District pastors. They, their families, and many noble laymen have been uniformly kind, considerate, and courteous. This will be a most pleasing memory till coronation day. The year's achievements in material progress, advance in benevolences, and gain in membership emphasize the fact that the genius of success is the genius of industry. Again we have seen this holding sure in two worlds—the natural and spiritual. Nature has filled the lap of horny-handed toil with abundant harvests. In like manner just as men have responded to God's call for laborers in His spiritual harvest-field, they have been privileged to return with rejoicing, bringing their sheaves with them. Their joy has been augmented not more by the abundance of the harvest than by the constancy of the divine presence—the maintainance of spiritual relationships. True workmen in either world derive inspiration from one common source—companionship with God.

“This is the gospel of labor,
Ring it, ye bells of the kirk;
The lord of love came down from above
To dwell with the men who work.”

In the final summary “The best of all is God is with us.”

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

Evangelism is the watchword of Methodism, and is fundamental to all the other great enterprises of our denomination. Building character and rendering service is the Methodistic ideal.

Since youth is the plastic period of life, we recognize the Sunday school as the first and foremost in the field of possibility for evangelism. In this institution we should give an intelligent inspiration that will save the child to God and the church, and prepare the parent for Christian custodianship.

The Epworth League is the training department of our young life for efficient evangelistic service, and commends itself to careful pastoral oversight.

We desire to urge that every pastor give himself earnestly to pastoral evangelism. We commend the Conference action in setting apart three of our honored ministers as Conference Evangelists to assist our pastors as specialists in this important labor, and request that they be employed as far as possible within the bounds of our own Conference. We insist upon loyalty to our church law, which requires that all our ministers consult with their respective District Superintendents before employing an evangelist, and urge special care in the examination of all credentials.

It is now a glad note in the reports of our District Superintendents that many great tabernacle meetings have been held within the bounds of our Conference, and we recommend such uniting of forces whenever possible.

Special emphasis having been laid on the Men and Religion Movement, we recommend the organization of gospel teams on all our charges for special evangelism, putting the utmost responsibility upon our laity for the success of evangelistic endeavors.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We congratulate this society on its ninety-eight years of marvelous growth and development, and that the last year has been the best in its history.

There were printed last year by this great organization 5,751,176 volumes of the Scriptures, in more than one hundred languages.

We are glad for the amount of free distribution it has been able to do among the needy families; our agents last year found 15,370 families without the Scriptures.

We congratulate this society on the distributing agency that is now at work during the Panama Exposition at San Francisco, in the good results that must follow.

The Bible never had such access to or such a desire from the heathen world as to-day, and a great harvest of souls must follow the wholesale introduction of this greatest evangelist.

We appreciate the fine presentation of this subject by Rev. S. H. Kirkbride, D.D., and pledge our full apportionment for this year.

We are heartily in favor of the setting apart of an hour in the program of the next Conference for an anniversary of this society.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your Committee on auditing the various accounts of the Conference submit the following report:

CONFERENCE SECRETARY.—We have carefully audited the various accounts of the Secretary, and find a balance due from districts for the sale of Year Books of $17.84, and that he has overdrafted the receipts $6.83. When the bills are collected, that he be given the $11.01, balance due.

CONFERENCE TREASURER.—We have carefully checked up the accounts of the Conference Treasurer, and find them correct.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.—We have carefully audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, and find a balance in his hands of $2.15.

TREASURER OF CONFERENCE CORPORATION.—We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Conference Corporation, and find a balance of cash and notes of $592.50.

SUSTENTATION.—We have audited the accounts of the District Superintendents with regard to the Sustentation Fund and find them correct.

FLOOD FUND.—A balance of $216.87 was shown in the hands of the Treasurer last year, but there was no accounting shown of the same for this year.

We recommend that the District Superintendents secure pocket ledgers in which they may keep a permanent record of the receipts and disbursements of the Sustentation Funds of their districts.

That there may be system in the keeping of the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, we recommend that he get a cash book in which he may keep a complete account of cash received and disbursed by him.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK

Recognizing that one of the greatest modern church movements is the Deaconess Movement, and in order to meet the demands so urgent and important, we would encourage more of our young women to consider favorably this field of Christian effort. We have at present but one deaconess in the bounds of our Conference, Miss Abigail Sechrist, of Alexandria, Indiana, whose license has been renewed. The consecrated deaconess can most successfully visit the sick, pray with the dying, comfort the sorrowing, seek the wandering, relieve the poor, care for the orphan, and represent Christ and the church. Therefore, we would urge our pastors to employ her in their charges.

E. C. DUNN, President;
E. E. TRIPPEER, Secretary.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

J. H. RUNKLE, Chairman.

U. S. A. BRIDGE, Registrar.

(1) A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, and colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examination.

(2) Similar certificates may also be received in all studies not Biblical or theological from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine as to whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

(3) Certificates presented for credit must show the amount of work done, text-books used, year in which the work was done, and the grade given by the Examiner. If no grade is furnished in a certificate presented for credit, the only minimum passing grade (70) will be allowed.

(4) All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or the seat of the Annual Conference. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of students in the mission field.

(5) Certificates from our approved Methodist Episcopal theological schools, showing the completion of the full course of study leading to a degree, will be received in lieu of the Conference examinations, in accordance with the Discipline of 1912, paragraph 568: "It being understood that the Annual Conference shall examine all candidates in regard to their personal attitude toward the doctrine and Discipline of the church."

(6) The Mid-year Institute will be held at Hartford City, October 18-22, 1915.

(7) Themes for sermons and essays for the year 1915-16 are as follows: First Year sermon, "Conversion." Essay for Second Year, "An Efficient Sunday School." Third Year sermon, choice between "The Atonement" and "Christian Assurance." All sermons must bear the date when written, and are requested to be handed in on or before the first day of the Mid-year Institute.

(8) The Post-Graduate work is to be continued under the direction of the same Committee—J. E. Williams, of Pendleton, and B. Earle Parker, of Marion—of whom inquiries may be made. A course to be completed at the Mid-year Institute is now offered by Prof. H. B. Gough, of DePauw. It is a course in the application of psychology to the program of the regular church service, and will be of immense value to pastors. Plans for the expansion of this department are under consideration, and definite information concerning changes to be made in the methods of the work and new courses to be offered will be made at the Institute. Professors Eckhart and Sweet, of DePauw, have consented to conduct the work in Philosophy and History.

(9) W. B. Freeland is appointed instead of R. J. Wade on the Board of Examiners, and will have the subjects Brother Wade had.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We, your Committee on Church Literature, deeply feel the importance of the religious press in establishing the great truths of the Kingdom. We rejoice in the success of the publications of the Methodist Book Concern and the increased circulation of the Western Christian Advocate and the Epworth Herald among our Methodist constituency. But it is with regret that we note the reduction of the pages of the Western, as well as marks of deterioration in its mechanical make-up, with its increased circulation. We recommend that our pastors encourage a more liberal reading by our people of our own periodicals and religious books.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE.

WHEREAS, The multiplicity of non-official appeals for financial assistance constantly increases, as does the tremendous summons to meet the needs of the day as felt by our own great Benevolent Boards; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That, in harmony with General Conference action, we admit to our pulpits for presentation and financial appeal only those causes which bear official recognition of the church, namely, our Disciplinary benevolences and such other benevolent interests as are recognized by the Annual Conference—Sustentation, Indiana Methodist Hospital, Home for the Aged at Warren, Ind., the Anti-Saloon League, and the Preachers' Aid Society.

Second, That no exception of emergency character be made without the consent of the local Official Board.

Third, That the Preachers' Aid Society have right of way for this year in those churches where the endowment campaign has not been completed.

Fourth, That we recognize, in view of the imperative need, the very special appeal to save Saint Paul Church, Elkhart, and will open our charges to its representatives.

CONFERENCE CORPORATION.

Alexandria, Indiana, May 6, 1914.

In response to a call, the following members of the Conference Corporation, P. J. Albright and D. V. Williams, met in the study of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Alexandria. There were also present Rev. Somerville Light, District Superintendent of the Goshen District, and R. A. Morrison, pastor of Saint Paul Church, Elkhart, Indiana. A copy of the will of George Marsh, late of Marshall County, Indiana, in which the North Indiana Conference was a beneficiary, was read. After the representation of the needs of the Saint Paul Church, Elkhart, were discussed, it was ordered that the officers of the Conference Corporation recommend that the North Indiana Conference, in the settlement of the estate involved in the above-mentioned will, that $5,000 be paid to said church on account of the heavy indebtedness on it, providing that this could be done under an accurate interpretation of the provisions of the will, Rev. L. G. Naftzger agreeing to the same over the long-distance telephone, provided that a later interpretation of the will warranted it.

It was further ordered that Rev. S. Light take charge of the farm until the next session of the North Indiana Annual Conference, without cost to the estate or the Conference, Rev. S. Light agreeing to the same.

D. V. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, submit the following report:

We have carefully examined the journals of Goshen, Fort Wayne, and Muncie Districts, and we find the records of these respective sessions held during the year neatly and accurately kept.

Since these journals are intended for a permanent record of the work done, your Committee commends the Superintendents and Secretaries for the painstaking care shown in their preservation.

EDUCATION.

We cannot emphasize too strongly the work of our Board of Education and Church Schools in developing the highest intellectual life of our young people and setting before them the noblest ideals of Christian character and service. We commend the efforts of the University Senate to standardize our schools and bring them to a higher state of efficiency.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.—We are entering upon an age that calls for a leadership in Christian work that is the equal of the leadership in all the great organized movements of our day. Our Lord's work is first in importance in the life of the world. If it holds its place in the midst of the great competing interests of the day, we must have men not only of religious piety and spiritual zeal, but of mental culture and breadth of vision second to none. We therefore urge that young men coming to our Conference for admission would seriously consider this requirement of the day and that they take advantage of the great opportunities open to them in our splendidly equipped theological schools.

It is with profound interest that we note the ever-increasing number of young men in these institutions in preparation for the great calling of the ministry, and with equal satisfaction we recognize the efforts of these schools to adjust the scholastic year to the conveniences of its student body. Garrett Biblical Institute, of Evanston, Illinois, has changed its year from semesters to quarters, and reduced its diploma course from three to two years. Drew Theological Seminary, of Madison, New Jersey, and Boston School of Theology are likewise modifying their courses to meet present demands. The Summer School of Theology now offered in these institutions gives good opportunity for hard-worked pastors to combine an enjoyable vacation with helpful and inspirational work. These institutions are constantly adding to their already strong faculties new men who are experts in the new activities of the church. Garrett Biblical Institute is to be congratulated in securing Dr. Harris Franklin Rall as the successor to the late Dr. Milton S. Terry in the chair of Systematic Theology. Drew Seminary has established a new and important department of Missions, to which chair Dr. Edmond D. Soper, a recognized leader in this subject, was elected; and also a course in personal and public Hygienics, under the direction of Mr. A. B. Wegener. Boston School of Theology has also instituted the course in Missions, with Harland P. Beach, of Yale, as lecturer. The opportunities afforded by these institutions for special preparation should be appreciated and embraced to the fullest extent by our young men.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.—DePauw University reports that, in addition to the Jubilee Endowment, the university has added in the last three years $300,000 for further endowments and buildings; that by next autumn it will add a modern gymnasium, with rooms for Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., thereby greatly adding to the efficiency of the total plant; that notwithstanding this achievement, so great has been the success of the university that within the next five years it will need a total of $750,000 more for buildings and endowment.

President Grose declares his abiding faith in Christian training and his determination to do all in his power that the work at DePauw shall be both Christian and training to the end that the students may go out in life mentally trained and with a passion to serve. He reports, in the meetings recently held by Bishop Henderson and Mr. White, that some three hundred students professed to be either converted or definitely helped in the Christian life.

We rejoice in this work as defined and undertaken by President Grose and the university, and commend it to our people for their patronage and support. We congratulate President Grose on the work so far done, and assure him of our continued interest and of our deep desire and prayer that the university may continue to grow not only in numbers, but also in spiritual power.

We recommend Dr. W. D. Parr be elected a Trustee for a period of three years.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.—Again we have abundant reason to congratulate ourselves upon the steady advance and the material progress of this great university. This enterprise has been very successfully promoted, and the hope of our people to plant and equip a school worthy of our church at our Nation's capital has passed from the stage of a theory or dream upon the part of the leaders of our church to an actual realization in the thought of our people and in the eyes of the world. The distribution of the University Courier recently made indicates that the work of establishing and maintaining such a school was wisely planned; and the promise of the very best training and teaching force is an invitation to all to come to enjoy the advantage of such opportunities as will be here offered for higher education and post-graduate work. This school is just launching upon a period of wide and extended service, which has been accentuated by the disturbed conditions in European countries, which have brought students knocking at our doors, and the horizon of our influence and power can only widen with the passing of our years. We are led to felicitate ourselves upon the presence of Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, and the address he delivered on opening day, May 14, 1914, containing the words of beautiful prophecy which he expressed in regard to our work.

We are pleased with the results of the labors of our brother, Dr. F. M. Stone, by which he has secured so rapidly the large sums of money to advance and support this university; and we confidently believe that with his continued appointment to this important post he will do even better things for the church in this field of labor.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE.—We heartily endorse the work of the Woman's College at Jacksonville, Illinois, and Goucher College, Baltimore, Maryland. These schools are splendidly equipped, have a superb teaching force, and are attracting a large and desirable class of students.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.—Under the efficient leadership of Dr. Monroe Vayhinger, this school, located within the bounds of our Conference, is doing good work. Its enrollment is increasing, and a fine religious spirit prevails.

Seventy acres of land have recently been given to the university by a generous friend; we commend this school to the consideration of our people.

We recommend the appointment of John Campbell and W. B. Freeland as Trustees of the university.

COLLEGE EVANGELISM.—Our Methodist colleges were established to promote Christian education, and in harmony with the conviction that the only infallible proof of the legitimacy of any branch of the Christian church is its ability to seek and save the lost and to disseminate the Pentecostal spirit and life.

When Christian education stops short of this high purpose, it misses its goal. To this end we earnestly urge our Faculties and students to fullest allegiance to and cooperation with the plans of the Commission on Evangelism as outlined by Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, and also such other methods and movements as will bring the entire college constituency into personal loyalty to Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. Since our colleges are the drill-grounds of the future leaders of the church, and since a devoted Methodist people are laying large sums of money upon the altars of Christian learning, it is of supreme importance that these institutions maintain the high ideals and foster and spread the spirit of our holy Christianity.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—The cooperation of our Board of Education with our schools in standardizing curricula, Faculties, plants, equipment, and endowment has been eminently helpful.

Its action at its recent annual meeting authorizing a Director of Religious Work for our institutions of learning is especially commendable.

Its thorough and far-reaching "Survey" of educational conditions throughout the country, now in progress, promises much for the Board's coming semi-centennial forward movement.

The Children's Day Collection, which has aided from the beginning 22,932 students—2,189 last year—continues increasingly helpful and efficient.

We commend and approve the apportionment by the General Conference Commission on Finance of the One Public Educational Collection authorized by the Discipline, eighty per cent at the order of the Conference, and twenty per cent for the Board of Education.

The Christian Student, the Board's official organ, improves constantly, and should be read widely. It is receiving most flattering acknowledgment without our own denomination as well as at home.

The announcement that the Rev. G. Franklin Ream, of the Newark Conference, has been secured for this position, guarantees the efficient operation of this plan.

COMMISSIONS AND VISITORS.—We express our appreciation of the Joint Commission on Educational Institutions of Methodism in Indiana, and recommend the continuance of W. W. Martin, L. M. Edwards, and C. U. Wade as our representatives. We recommend Somerville Light as Conference Visitor to DePauw University for the term expiring in 1918; L. M. Edwards, to Drew Theological Seminary; F. M. Stone, to Garrett Biblical Institute; O. B. Morris, to Boston School of Theology; B. E. Parker, to Taylor University; D. T. Stephenson, to Woman's College, Jacksonville, Illinois.

We recommend that the Visitors appointed by this Conference submit a written report to the Chairman of the Committee on Education one month prior to the session of the Conference. We recommend the following special appointments: G. R. Grose, President of DePauw University; F. M. Stone, Endowment Secretary of American University; H. B. Gough, Professor in DePauw; W. W. Sweet, Professor in DePauw; C. U. Wade, Endowment Secretary, DePauw University; G. H. Meyers, Endowment Secretary, Illinois Wesleyan University.

FRATERNAL GREETINGS.

Kendallville, Indiana, April 9, 1915.

Inasmuch as the Committee on Resolutions of the Evangelical Association of Indiana will not be able to report concerning the visit of the Fraternal Delegation of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to this Conference in the presence of these visiting brethren; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, greatly appreciate the spirit manifested by this fraternal visitation; that we have listened with pleasure to the fraternal address of their spokesman, Rev. O. A. Trabue, and that we respectfully request him to convey the greetings of this Conference to the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

We are pleased to report that the great work carried forward by the Freedmen's Aid Society of our church has continued during the past year through the agency of its more than twenty schools for the uplift of our colored brethren in the South, though in somewhat embarrassing circumstances. Its schools are still the main source of trained and educated pastors, physicians, schoolteachers, and Christian leaders. At present they have 372 teachers and 6,961 students. They furnish the largest hope of the emancipation of the Negro from ignorance, disease, and immorality. During the society's history of nearly fifty years, tens of thousands of colored young people, trained for service, have been sent out to be the leaven of the mass of their people. But during the past year, owing to the stringent conditions which the war has imposed upon the South by closing the markets for cotton and cutting the prices in half, very embarrassing conditions have arisen and serious thoughts have been suggested concerning closing temporarily some of the schools, which would give the work of Negro education a great setback. The society's debt has materially advanced because of these stringent conditions and the continuation of the schools under the same.

Therefore, we urge the consideration on the part of our pastors and laymen of the special appeal made by the society for a gift of one dollar each from those members whose hearts may be touched by the needs of this cause, to relieve the present situation and that the work may not suffer overmuch.

We urge, seeing that our colored brethren have proven their willingness to help themselves by having raised $80,000 of their share of the Jubilee Fund, that an offering be taken during the ensuing year for said fund on the charges which have not hitherto done so, and that we strive to raise our share of the Jubilee gift.

We urge that our people be given the necessary information concerning this society, believing that the possession of such knowledge will mean larger gifts; and further, for this information we refer our pastors and people to the society's literature, which will be furnished free in ample quantities on request.

We urge the raising of our full apportionment to the sustaining fund of this cause during this coming year.

We wish to commend Dr. I. Garland Penn on his two splendid addresses delivered before our Conference, which were instructive, pleasing, and humorous.

May the work of our Freedmen's Aid go forward!

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We note with thanksgiving the advance in missionary enterprises and increase in gifts and money to the establishment of the Redeemer's Kingdom in all the earth. Encouraging news comes to us of the many omens of progress in all our mission fields; of the loyalty and heroism of the tens of thousands who are yielding their souls and lives to the Prince of Peace. We rejoice in the awakening of our people and the broadening of their vision to the great opportunities for the expansion of God's Kingdom in all lands.

We regret the serious hindrance and losses to our work in the countries involved in the awful war now raging, and pray most earnestly that lasting peace will soon be established, and that the Lord may cause even the wrath of man to praise him.

We would urge our people to greater consecration to this greatest of all causes—the maintenance and extension of the gospel of Jesus Christ—and we pledge our best energies, our most generous gifts to all missionary enterprises.

We recommend to all our pastors fidelity to all the advanced methods proposed and adopted by our leaders to disseminate missionary information and increase the offerings to the treasury.

We were instructed and thrilled with the splendid presentation of the "Around the World with a Missionary Camera," by S. Earl Taylor, L.L.D., and desire to record our appreciation of his address and the splendid pictures presented; also of the earnest gospel appeal of Frank P. Morris for a deeper religious spirit and greater loyalty and devotion to the command of the Lord, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

We were delighted to learn of the substantial increase of collections in all the districts of our Conference for foreign missions, and pledge ourselves to the best efforts possible to still greater advancement.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

We, your Committee, rejoice in the continued prosperity that our hospital is enjoying. Notwithstanding the opening of the new south pavilion, the hospital has been full to its utmost capacity for the past year, and much of the time has been compelled to turn patients away for lack of room.

We congratulate the institution that while our free work is constantly increasing, that so far no one has ever been refused admission because of their inability to pay. We are also pleased to note the fact that for the past year the current income of the hospital has equaled the current expenses.

With the completion of the north pavilion, which is now inclosed, the capacity will still further be increased and the income enlarged. The need for the completion of this pavilion is urgent and immediate. We therefore trust that our people will make liberal contributions toward this end.

We hereby express our great appreciation of the successful work of our brother, the Rev. Sherman Powell, as a Field Secretary, and welcome him back into the pastorate with the prayer that the years of his usefulness may be many.

We also desire to express our great appreciation of the superintendency of Dr. J. McLean Moulder, who has not only carefully looked after the financial matters connected with the hospital, but has been as a father to many of those whose needs made them the wards of the institution for the time.

We commend the interest of the Hon. Winfield T. Durbin as a Trustee, and hereby nominate him to succeed himself, his term to expire in the year 1918.

We have greatly appreciated the presence and address of the Hon. Charles F. Coffin at this session of our Conference, and hereby express our gratitude for his constant interest in looking after the legal matters involved in our work, as well as for his efficient services as a member of the Executive Committee, and all this without expense for his services to the institution.

We recommend that the District Superintendents apportion to the charges in the Conference an amount equal to ten cents per member for the Sustaining Fund, which has never been needed more than now, that we may do our proportionate share towards caring for those who need our benefactions.

We recommend that the necessary steps be at once taken to amend the Articles of Incorporation so that the following may be sent to the Indiana and the Northwest Indiana Conferences for their approval and adoption, that they may as rapidly as possible become operative:

RESOLVED, THAT THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE
METHODIST EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME OF THE STATE OF INDIANA

BE AMENDED SO AS TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Provided that these amendments shall not operate to exclude from the present existing Articles of Incorporation any article or articles not here repeated, but which are required by statute.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

The name of this Association shall be "The Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess Home of the State of Indiana."

ARTICLE II.—CAPITAL STOCK.

This Association shall have no capital stock.

ARTICLE III.—OBJECT.

The objects of this Association are to establish and maintain hospitals for the treatment of sick, wounded, and injured persons, and for the care of the infirm, and a school for the education and training of nurses.

ARTICLE IV.—MEMBERS.

The members of this Association shall be all members in good standing of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the State of Indiana.

ARTICLE V.—TRUSTEES.

The business and prudential concerns of this Association shall be managed by a Board of thirty-three Trustees. Said Trustees shall be chosen in the following manner: each of the three Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Indiana: namely, the North Indiana Conference, the Northwest Indiana Conference, and the Indiana Conference, shall elect at its annual session six Trustees, three of whom shall be ministers and three of whom shall be laymen. They shall hold office for the period of three years, provided that the term of office of only two of such Trustees from each Conference shall expire each year and the order of their election shall be arranged accordingly.

Each of the Women's Home Missionary Societies of the above Conferences shall elect at its annual meeting two Trustees, one of whom shall be the Conference Corresponding Secretary of such society. They shall hold office for the term of three years, provided that the terms of not more than two of said Trustees out of the six chosen by the said

Women's Home Missionary Societies shall expire each year and the order of their election shall be arranged accordingly by agreement among said societies.

All of the Trustees elected by the Annual Conferences and by the Women's Home Missionary Societies shall be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Trustees thus elected may at their annual meeting elect nine Trustees at large, three from within the territory of each Conference, six of whom may be chosen from among the friends of the Hospital who may not be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Said Trustees at large, so elected, shall hold office for a period of three years, provided that the term of office of three of said Trustees shall expire with each year and the order of their election shall be arranged accordingly.

Vacancies occurring in the Board of Trustees from death, resignation, or otherwise, between the annual sessions of any of the bodies above mentioned, may be filled by the Board of Trustees until the next session of the body by whom said retiring Trustee was elected. The term of office of each Trustee shall commence at the next meeting of the Board of Trustees held after his or her election, and shall expire as above provided, except that in the event of failure or delay in the election or qualification of a successor such Trustee shall hold over until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

ARTICLE VI.—ANNUAL MEETING. ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Board of Trustees shall hold an annual meeting for the election of officers of this Association for the ensuing year at such time and place as shall be fixed in the by-laws adopted by such Trustees.

ARTICLE VII.—TERM OF EXISTENCE.

The term of the existence of this Association shall be unlimited.

ARTICLE VIII.—PLACE OF OPERATION.

The business of this Association shall be carried on in the State of Indiana, having its central place of business in Indianapolis, Indiana.

ARTICLE IX.—CORPORATE SEAL.

The seal of this Association shall be a circular disk bearing the words, "Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess Home," and the date, "1899."

ARTICLE X.—AMENDMENT.

These articles may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the majority present and voting at each of the three Annual Conferences above mentioned of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the State of Indiana, or by any other method that may at any time be recognized and sanctioned by law.

In harmony with the above new Articles of Incorporation, we recommend the following as provisional Trustees, their duties to begin when this Constitution shall have been ratified and certified by the Indiana and the Northwest Indiana Conferences.

Provisional Trustees: Mr. Edwin A. Rutenber, Logansport, Indiana; term to expire in the year 1916. Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger, term to expire in the year 1918; the Rev. Sherman Powell, term to expire in the year 1917.

We hereby request the Secretary of this Conference to forward to the Secretary of the Methodist Hospital, the Hon. Charles F. Coffin, Indianapolis, Indiana, a certified copy of this report.

LESLIE J. NAFTZGER, Chairman;
HARVLY W. PARK, Secretary.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home submits the following:

1. We rejoice in the success of the Home as manifested by the health and happiness of those persons who have been admitted thereto, and by the excellent report of the assets and liabilities, which are as follows:

RESOURCES.

Treasurer	$2,343 33
Endowment	1,381 45
Live Stock	630 27
Tools and Equipment	1,353 97
Furniture and Furnishings	1,249 08
Real Estate	16,162 12
Bond Accounts	5,717 97
River Side Farm	6,907 38
Chopson Farm	17,551 76
Bills Receivable	9,066 00
Building and Grounds	49,867 47
Superintendent and Secretary	816 59
Total	$116,048 19

LIABILITIES.

Annuity Bond	$9,020 00
Building Fund	50,000 00
Contingent Fund	10,703 28
Endowment Fund	46,324 91
Total	$116,048 19

2. We commend the Rev. E. L. Jones and wife for their efficient, economical administration of the affairs of the institution as shown by the fact that the net income of the Chopson Farm for this year was $1,312.02, or almost $7 per acre; also by the fact that the annual maintenance per capita was only $145. We further desire to make special mention of the kind, sympathetic, and faithful Christian manner with which Mrs. Jones has performed the task as matron of the Home.

3. We recommend the Committee to apportion the benevolences to the various charges of the Conference, including the equal of five cents per member for the Home Sustaining Fund.

4. We recommend that the Rev. E. L. Jones be reappointed as Superintendent and Corresponding Secretary of the institution for another year.

5. We recommend the following as Trustees, to be elected for a period of three years: M. S. Marble, Eli Miller, J. F. Morrison.

C. E. DUNN,	E. E. TRIPPEER,
F. A. LEMASTER,	H. LACY,
O. T. MARTIN,	J. H. PALMER,
W. H. HARRISON,	Committee.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

We, your Committee, are glad to report that this Conference now has 211 parsonage homes, valued at $516,750, leaving only twenty charges without a home for our ministers. This consideration of the laymen is greatly appreciated by every pastor of this Conference.

We recommend that it be the purpose and, wherever possible, the program of each district to purchase a suitable manse for the district residence of our District Superintendents of this Conference.

We also greatly appreciate the fact that there is now a number of beautiful cottage homes within the bounds of this Conference, to be used for our retired ministers.

We further recommend that each District Superintendent in the first Quarterly Conference shall call the attention of the Trustees of our parsonage properties that it is now the policy of our stronger Conference to provide the larger and heavier house furnishings, and that we recommend this to be the program of the Conference.

We recommend that, whereas, in these days of our growing Methodism it is often necessary to divide certain charges with parsonage property in common: wherever it is required, we believe that each society shall have their interests properly guarded in fairness to all.

PURDUE STUDENT PASTORATE.

Your Committee recommends:

1. That this Conference heartily assume one half ($1,200) of the support of our student pastor at Purdue University.
2. That the Sustentation Fund be sufficiently increased to cover same. That the collections be reported early to the Treasurer, and that all collections so reported be at once advanced to the proper custodian, as a payment on the salary, until the entire amount is paid.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

The Christian church is committed to the task of saving society through the redemption of the individual; therefore, we, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, recommend that our ministers and laymen become intensely interested in the social life of our people.

We believe that the Lord's day should be used sacredly for the purpose of rest and worship of Almighty God, and we deplore the desecration of this day by unnecessary travel and many games of sport, which in themselves are harmless and may be beneficial if used during the week-days.

We recommend to our people only such amusement as can be taken in harmony with the development of Christian character.

We pledge ourselves anew to stand upon the law of our church and the teachings of the Holy Scriptures in regard to the question of divorce, and recommend that our ministers shall, wherever possible, use the excellent Ritual of our church so that the marriage contract may be consummated under the most sacred and hallowed influence.

We deplore the desecration of our National holidays, which are set apart for the sacred purposes of patriotism in memory of our soldiers, living and dead, and for the purposes of thanksgiving to Almighty God. We urge our Christian colleges to commemorate Thanksgiving Day with suitable religious service.

We heartily endorse "The Social Creed of the Churches" as adopted by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, December 9, 1912. We recommend that our preachers present this social creed to their congregations so that the world may know the attitude of the Methodist Episcopal Church toward the social problems of the day. We are in hearty accord with any and all movements working for the entire suppression of polygamy as practiced by Mormonism in violation of law.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

It is gratifying to report a fine increase in the missionary offerings of the Conference and an advance in all lines of Sunday-school activities.

The Committee endorses the new movement of the Sunday School Board in its Institute Plan as conducted by the representatives of the Board in the several centers of our Conference during the past year.

We note the unprecedented increase in the church during the past four years, since 1910, of 577,977 Sunday-school scholars who are members of the church and probationers—an increase of 100,000 in excess of the total increase of church membership.

It is a notable fact that 1,174,180 Sunday-school scholars have been converted since 1908. Methodism has no greater evangelistic record in its history. The future of the church depends upon the careful training of her children, and the Sunday school is the one organization for that training.

We therefore recommend that the District Superintendents, pastors, and laymen be asked to give special attention to the efficiency of the Sunday school during the coming year:

1. That available material of the best be provided.
2. That teachers be loyal, competent, and studying to improve their skill in the guiding of youth toward efficient service.
3. That, through organized departments and classes, adequate expression may be given to the growing Christian impulse and the training for Christian responsibility.
4. That particular attention be given the financial claims of the Board not at the sacrifice of any worthy cause, but that larger funds may be provided for the workers of the Board and the putting of information in the churches.
5. That we meet all Disciplinary provisions by creating a Board within the Conference composed of an equal number of ministers and laymen for each district, and that we request the members of the Conference Board to give particular attention to the promotion of a general advance in Sunday-school methods under the guidance of the Sunday School Board in Chicago.

We recommend that every pastor and Sunday-school superintendent shall endeavor to carry out the threefold missionary policy as set forth in the institute work, and shall make the same a part of the working program for the coming year.

We urge that every school shall adopt the evangelistic policy as a part of their Sunday-school program for the coming year.

GEORGE E. GARRISON, Chairman;
CHARLES A. CLOUD,
D. T. STEPHENSON.

SUSTENTATION FUND.

Since the Sustentation Fund is meant to be used only in local home missionary work in the supplementing of the salaries of ministers in charge of appointments unable adequately to support them, and since there is much work of that character yet in the Conference, we, your Committee, recommend the most earnest support of this very worthy cause. It is estimated that there will be required at least $4,000 for this cause for the ensuing Conference year. We therefore recommend the apportionment of that amount to be distributed among the various districts. We also recommend the addition of $1,200 for the support of a student pastor at Purdue, making the entire apportionment $5,200.

TEMPERANCE RESOLUTIONS.

We rejoice over the tremendous growth of the prohibition movement throughout the world: that Russia's 160,000,000 people are now under permanent absolute prohibition; that France has prohibited the manufacture and sale of absinthe; that England, with the approval and the direction of the king, his cabinet and ministry, are now in the midst of a campaign for the prohibition of the liquor traffic; that in our own country, since last September, nine States have enacted prohibition laws, with five additional State Legislatures referring the question of State-wide prohibition to popular vote this autumn, and that the Hobson bill for National prohibition, through an amendment to the Constitution, on December 22 last carried a majority of eight votes in its favor in the House of Congress.

We believe the Nation will soon be delivered from the curse of the liquor traffic forever. We also rejoice in the unified movement now under way in this State for the prohibition of the liquor traffic for beverage purposes in Indiana. We pledge to this movement, and also to the movement for National prohibition, the united and vigorous cooperation of the members of this Conference, representing a membership of 80,000 and 250,000 constituents, and while we do not presume to dictate to our people their political affiliations, yet we do express it as our deliberate conviction that no candidate for Congress, governor, lieutenant-governor, or for the Legislature, ought to expect, nor should he receive, the suffrage of Christian voters when he has not publicly expressed himself as favoring prohibition laws or who has not set himself squarely in favor of State and National prohibition.

As an agency federating the churches of all denominations for the realization of both State and National prohibition, we commend to both pastors and people for their cooperation the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, and we nominate as Trustees for the League from this Conference, W. W. Martin and O. A. Trabue.

We commend the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for the work it is doing and for its devotion to total abstinence and prohibition.

We condemn the license policy. It is vicious in principle, utterly inconsistent with the principles of enlightened government, in practice a protection to a traffic which is inherently criminal in its nature.

TO THE PRESIDENT.

WHEREAS, The States do not possess the power necessary to control the traffic in intoxicating liquors, while the nation already exercises ample powers to control the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation, promotion, and interstate carriage of such liquors; and,

WHEREAS, The issue is a clear-cut case of right against wrong, one in which attempted neutrality gives consent to the existing vicious Federal policy; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the President of the United States is earnestly and respectfully urged to lend his vigorous aid to the submission of a Constitutional amendment which will give the States the right to prohibit the liquor traffic in the Nation.

CHURCH TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

We rejoice in the achievements of the Church Temperance Society during the past year. The immense amount of literature circulated, the addresses delivered, the publicity secured for temperance news and argument, and the aid given in prohibition campaigns testify to the strategic place occupied by the society in the anti-liquor battle line.

While the Temperance Society cooperates with every organization and in every sane movement for prohibitive legislation, we recognize the truth of Bishop Shepard's statement that "There are some forms of temperance activity more spectacular, but none so broad as education."

The year 1915 has been set aside for a forward movement throughout the whole church along lines of organization, moral emphasis, and educational publicity. "Every Methodist a total abstainer, every Sunday school organized, every Epworth League with a temperance study class, and every church with a live Temperance Committee," is the ideal of the society, and it is not more than can and ought to be done. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we endorse the "church-wide temperance educational program" being conducted this year by the Temperance Society, and pledge our hearty cooperation.

As officers of the Conference Temperance Society we recommend for President, Rev. J. O. Bills; Vice-President, Rev. F. P. Morris; Secretary, Rev. Herbert Boase.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT, TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

We, the members of the North Indiana Conference, deplore the action of the Indiana congressmen in voting against the Hobson bill, and earnestly request that at the next opportunity they support National prohibition.

We also unanimously commend Judge Anderson, of the Federal Court of Indianapolis, for his fearless and righteous administration, especially in the conviction and punishment of those who would corrupt and destroy the right of franchise and the purity of the ballot.

Also do we commend the efficient services of the district attorney, the Hon. Frank C. Dailey, in this same excellent work.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To Bishop McDowell, and members of the North Indiana Conference, assembled in Auburn, Indiana, April, 1915.—Greeting:

We beg leave to present our thirty-seventh annual report as a Conference organization, and forty-sixth as an organized society, recognized by the General Conference.

We are devoutly thankful for the work that has been accomplished throughout the year, as manifested by the faith and deepening conviction of the women, in the ultimate conquest of the world, in the name of our risen Christ.

We salute the pastors of this Conference as true yoke-fellows, and pledge our cooperation in every department of the church work. We wish to emphasize our real anxiety to work in harmony with pastors and district superintendents. Our district officers will be glad to confer with the superintendents about our work on their districts. Every department of the work has been advanced, the record for the year shows an enrollment of 7,143 members in 228 organizations, which includes women, young people and children, a gain of 583 members and thirty-three organizations. The circulation of the Woman's and Junior Missionary Friends have made a net gain of 200 copies. About 4,000 mite boxes are in use.

Six district meetings have been held, and were seasons of great spiritual uplift, and new resolves for greater efficiency and deeper consecration. We have been ably assisted by the work of four returned missionaries, the Misses Benthein, Westcott, and Denning, and our field secretary, Miss Creek.

The report of Mrs. Cline will give you a resumé of the work we are doing in the foreign field by our dues and other offerings.

Receipts for the year, $14,781.32—of this amount the children have paid $967, and the young people $1,351. We refer you to the Northwestern Branch Report for receipts from pastoral charges.

Our watchword for the present year follows: "For behold, God himself is with us for our captain," and close this brief and inadequate report, singing: "He crowneth the year with his goodness."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. FLORENCE CLARK BINFORD, Conference Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Special Work.

Joyfully we submit the Annual Report of Special Work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of North Indiana Conference, as it shows an increase in several lines of our work.

We support some work in nine of the foreign fields, as follows: entire support of eight regular missionaries, forty-two Bible-women, one assistant Bible-woman, seven Bible-women in training, four hospital beds (besides other medical work), five day schools, two kindergartens, one Zenana worker, three native teachers, four station workers, and one hundred and two scholarships.

We have also had contributions for naming a room in the Peking Hospital, special gifts of money to several of our missionaries, and a number of Christmas remembrances.

Almost all of our societies have observed Christmas and Thank Offering Days, many have contributed to the Retirement Fund, and several auxiliaries observed Self-Denial Week.

Owing to war conditions, only a few Christmas boxes have been started to the field.

Each month a number of papers and magazines are sent to our missionaries, but the aim of the Secretary of this department (at least one paper or magazine to each missionary) has not yet been realized. We who have almost a surfeit of such literature do not seem to realize the lack of it on the foreign field, and the eagerness of our workers to receive the home papers and magazines.

Some, yes, many of the missionaries write that the countries in which they are working are somewhat affected by the war, but that the work is going on and that new and urgent appeals are being made for new or enlarged buildings, for furnishings or equipment, for support of teachers, Bible-women, nurses, and scholarships. The special and most insistent call is for the establishment of day schools. There are so few of them and yet they are a potent and far-reaching agency for good.

There is such a varied line of work from which to choose that it is an easy matter for each individual member of our auxiliaries to find some special line of work in which she can become especially interested, and thereby receive as well as bestow a blessing and in materially helping to spread the glad tidings of great joy.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. B. CLINE,

Conference Secretary of Special Work.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Joyful greetings are herewith extended to all Methodists gathered in Auburn, Indiana, for the Annual Session of North Indiana Conference.

The year 1914-1915 has been one of unusual interest and activity along Home Missionary lines. And it is with deep gratitude we express our appreciation of the brotherly interest our pastors are manifesting in this patriotic and Christian enterprise.

Even though the gloom of war has made its influence felt, we have grown. Our seventy-nine auxiliaries have been multiplied to ninety, and our 3,420 members have increased to 3,694. Miss C. K. Swartz, Field

Secretary, was with us this February, and though her stay was short, she was able to leave us several new organizations.

The six District Conventions were held at Russiaville, Pendleton, Union City, Markle, Monroeville, and LaGrange. Miss Nellie Snider, Reserve Field Secretary, was present, and proved herself of great assistance. Large crowds were gathered to hear her evening addresses.

The Secretary of Reading Circles writes me that when this year's work is finished we will have the best record yet in her department. Let us "study to show ourselves approved" in the work in which we are engaged.

The National Board of Managers' meeting in Syracuse, New York, last October, marked an epoch in the enormity of our task of helping to Christianize America. "Self-denial" is the keynote for successful effort.

For seven consecutive years North Indiana Conference Woman's Home Missionary Society has received the National banner in mite-box offerings. Wolcottville, having given the largest average per box, is holding the banner in trust until the next National meeting, which will be held in Seattle, September 29 to October 6.

The Conference meeting in Broadway Church, Logansport, November 3-5, was one long to be remembered because of the presence of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Murray, Superintendents of George O. Robinson Orphanage, San Juan, Porto Rico. Mrs. Murray was formerly President of this Conference, and we as a Conference have a very lively interest in their work in the far South. Mrs. Susie Aiken Winold, Editor of the Annual Report, was also an honored guest, and delivered a splendid address. Throughout the convention was marked for its cordial hospitality and genuine fellowship. The superior executive ability of our President, Mrs. J. C. White, was shown in the dexterity with which she carried through on time a very full program. Mrs. White has also answered many calls during the year to present different phases of our work from various pulpits.

The two young ladies spoken of in last year's report as taking training for special missionary work have both finished their courses and at present are located in the Indianapolis Deaconess Home serving their apprenticeship. Miss Elizabeth Wilson, who is to be our Conference deaconess, is visiting deaconess in the Indiana Methodist Hospital, and the Lord is greatly blessing her ministrations. Miss Winifred Brown is doing kindergarten work in the Italian section, and is a great favorite with the children.

Joyfully we announce the purpose of Miss Mildred Easterling, of Grace Church, Kokomo, who has offered her young life in the field of Domestic Science among her less fortunate white sisters. Others are also offering themselves, but the plans are too incomplete to publish definitely.

In Young People's Work we are steadily climbing. The seed sown now in good ground will reap a harvest an hundredfold. Let us pray for the childhood; let us pray for the womanhood of our fair homeland, adding to our faith and prayers—works.

Respectfully submitted,

OLLIE GRACE DAVIS,

Conference Corresponding Secretary.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

The high place held by woman in the church of Christ has ever been in delightful contrast with her degradation under other religion.

The women of Galilee ministered to Jesus and his disciples. The four virgin daughters of Philip the evangelist were prophetesses. Lydia at Philippi gave Paul and his companions a home as first missionaries to Europe. Phebe was a deaconess at Cenchreæ. Many other women are named by Paul as laborers in the Lord.

What wonder is it that in these modern times the women of the church abound in so nearly every form of service? The women of all the churches are joined in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union as an army fighting for the destruction of the liquor traffic. In our own denomination the Ladies' Aid Societies furnish material help in the beauty and comfort of churches and parsonages. The Woman's Missionary Societies, Home and Foreign, send forth and sustain a great company of consecrated workers in the wide world-field. Our splendid deaconess sisterhood renders beautiful ministry in many ways. Our Sunday schools and Leagues are mightily increased in their efficiency by the work of women. And who can estimate the value of women's prayers, testimonies, and tender persuasions in times of revival?

While we heartily rejoice in this new day of activity on the part of the men of the church, and expect great things therefrom, we are equally glad that the women of Methodism are no less zealous than before. Their devotion suffers no decline. In labors they are even more abundant.

We commend them for their consecration, and pray God's blessing upon all their plans and undertakings for the building up of the Kingdom.

Resolutions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We desire to express our joy in having Bishop William Fraser McDowell to preside again in our Conference. We have been inspired by the keen and stimulating addresses he has given at the morning hour and by the sermon on Sunday. We appreciate his fair and impartial conduct as presiding officer, and his brotherly spirit in all his relationships with us. We recognize the wisdom of the plan of episcopal supervision that has given us the continuous superintendency of the same Bishop, and record our belief that such a plan is conducive to the prosperity and development of our Conference.

We hold of greatest value the efficiency program of evangelism conducted by Dr. Fred B. Fisher, and thank Dr. J. W. Somerville, Rev. W. H. Kellogg, D.D., and Dr. S. Earl Taylor for their part on this program. In addition to this, we desire to thank Dr. Taylor for his illustrated lecture on missions.

We thank President A. E. Smith, of Ohio Northern University, for his evangelistic addresses.

We extend our thanks to all the Conference officers for the painstaking manner in which they have discharged their many duties.

We record with delight our appreciation of the hospitality of the beautiful city of Auburn, and the cordial manner in which the people have opened their homes for our comfort. Under the leadership of the big-hearted and efficient pastor, the Rev. Fred F. Thornburg, everything possible has been done for our convenience and comfort. We would especially commend the fine work of the Committees on Reception, Assignment, Homes, Buildings and Committees' Rooms, Check Room, Information Bureau, Dining Hall, and the courteous ushers and janitors.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Schemmerhorn, and Mrs. Kettering, the organist, and Mrs. F. F. Thornburg have contributed largely to the inspiration of the services.

We thank the Auburn Scout Quartet for their delightful concert on Friday evening, and their good work at other times. Also Mr. Ernest Naftzger, for his solos and the direction of the music in the special services.

We wish to thank the City National Bank, the Auburn State Bank, and the Young Men's Christian Association for their many courtesies and kindnesses. We also appreciate the hospitality of the Commercial Club of the city.

We extend our thanks to the Evening Star for the full and discriminating reports of the Conference sessions.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

WHEREAS, In the experience of most of those who retire from the active ministry of the church, the first year after their superannuation is, for many reasons, the most difficult in their financial experience; therefore,

We recommend, That after this session the name of every man retired be at once placed upon the list of Conference Claimants, and that he receive in a regular way his proportion of the funds in the hands of the Board of Conference Stewards for distribution at the session of the Annual Conference at which he was retired.

Laymen's Association.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference met at the Young Men's Christian Association in Auburn, Indiana, at 2:30 o'clock P. M. The meeting was called to order by the President, George C. Morgan. C. C. Ayres, of Redkey, conducted the opening devotional exercises. After prayer was offered by Dr. C. B. Stemen, of Fort Wayne, C. C. Ayres read the eighth chapter of Romans with comment, exhortation, and testimony.

J. W. Gardner, of Reynolds, President of the Laymen's Association of the Northwest Indiana Conference, was introduced, and gave a suggestive and inspiring talk. He especially emphasized the dignity, power, and consequent responsibility of the laity of the church.

In the absence of the Secretary, B. W. Ayres, of Upland, was elected Secretary pro tempore.

The following Committees were appointed by the President to report at the Friday morning session:

Committee on Resolutions—D. O. Skillen, Yorktown; Charles Cline, Kendallville; C. L. Walters, Decatur.

Committee on Nominations—J. A. Hood, Portland; A. C. Lehman, Wakarusa; J. Riley Broyles, Muncie.

Committee on Enrollment—C. A. Yotter, Angola; Thomas Rudd, Butler; W. A. Myers, Hartford City.

Rev. E. L. Jones, Superintendent and Corresponding Secretary of the Memorial Home for the Aged, at Warren, Indiana, was introduced, and gave with interesting detail the problems confronting him in the management. He also discussed the management of the farms connected with the Home, indicating outlay and income. His report set forth the peace, harmony, and Christian influence of the Home, and stated that it now has thirty-six guests. The subject was opened for discussion and a short time was spent in asking questions and in discussion.

President M. Vayhinger was requested to present information on Taylor University, of Upland, Indiana. He spoke of the control, educational standards, religious life and standards, growth, Faculty, territorial distribution of the students, and other facts of vital import to the church. The report showed that nineteen college seniors are coming up for graduation in June. Of the three hundred and four students enrolled for the current year, seventy-three are candidates for the ministry or already in the ministry, and besides these, forty-nine are preparing for mission work in the foreign field.

Discussion of this subject was very interesting and prolonged, but all very favorable to the institution. The discussion was opened by Dr. C. B. Stemen. Dean B. W. Ayres gave the Association some very illuminating information about the scope and standard of work, the classes of students reached by the school, and the methods and means of helping poor students. Others speaking in the discussion were E. S. Vandermark, Rev. B. W. Lewis, D. O. Skillen, C. C. Ayres, O. W. Outland.

On motion of Elwood Starbuck, a vote of thanks was given to the representatives of the Memorial Home for the Aged and of Taylor University for the information furnished the Association.

The meeting adjourned, to meet at nine o'clock Friday morning.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Devotional exercises were conducted by J. Frank Snyder, of LaGrange. After a number of fervent prayers, Brother Snyder read Paul's testimony before Agrippa, and spoke especially of the value of Christian testimony.

Dr. William Enslen, of Fort Wayne, spoke on the subject, "If This Work Be of Men, It Will Come to Naught." He spoke of the new impulse and purpose among the men of the church to do more than look after the merely secular interests of the church.

Dr. J. W. Somerville, of Wichita, Kansas, gave a short, stirring address full of encouragement to laymen.

Judge C. C. Raymer delivered a very telling, sane, and brave address on "The Ideal Preacher." There was discussion of this subject by C. C. Ayres and W. H. Fledderjohann.

The members of Committee on Nominations being absent from this session, the Chairman appointed a new Committee, as follows: Dr. W. Enslen, E. Franz, S. T. Waite, and E. S. Vandermark.

D. O. Skillen was assigned for discussion of the subject, "Should Annual Meetings of the Laymen's Association be held at the same time and place as the Annual Conference?"

After a brief intermission, the Committee on Resolutions, through its Chairman, D. O. Skillen, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That we thank the Young Men's Christian Association of Auburn for their splendid courtesy in allowing us the use of their beautiful Y. M. C. A. Building, and the people of Auburn for their splendid hospitality.

"That we extend a vote of thanks to Rev. E. L. Jones, of the Warren Home for the Aged, and to President Monroe Vayhinger, of Taylor University, for their clear addresses of information regarding their interests, and that we heartily recommend their support.

"That we recommend to the Cabinet, in choosing of administrative committees, that the lay representatives on these committees shall be chosen with a view to peculiar fitness to give the best service to the administration of the enterprise to be administered.

"That we meet at some time during the year other than the time of the Annual Conference."

Elwood Starbuck presented the following amendment to the By-laws, making section 2 read:

"Time and Place of Meeting.—It shall meet annually at such time and place as shall be arranged by the Executive Committee."

This was unanimously adopted.

The Secretary was instructed to send a report of this meeting to the leading daily papers of the State and to the local papers.

The Committee on Nominations made the following report, which was adopted:

President, George C. Morgan, LaGrange; Vice-President-at-Large, D. O. Skillen, Yorktown; Secretary and Treasurer, B. W. Ayers, Upland. District Vice-Presidents: Fort Wayne District, W. H. Fledderjohann, Decatur; Goshen District, Elwood Starbuck, Goshen; Logansport District, George C. Miller, Peru; Muncie District, Sullivan T. Waite, Upland; Richmond District, P. A. Daily; Wabash District, E. S. Vandermark, Burket.

Other matters of interest were briefly discussed, and the following recommendation was passed, to be communicated to the Cabinet:

"We recommend and respectfully pray the Bishop and Cabinet that the number of districts in the Conference be reduced from six to four."

Adjourned.

GEORGE C. MORGAN, President;
B. W. AYRES, Secretary pro tem.

CALLED MEETING, SATURDAY, APRIL 10.

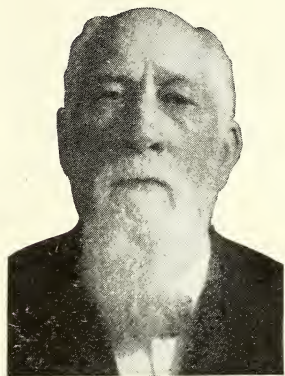

At the call of the President, the Laymen's Association held a meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association to reconsider a resolution passed by its members on the previous day. The following resolution was passed unanimously:

"Resolved, That we exceedingly regret that the students of Taylor University are not permitted to participate in the Students' Loan Fund of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and we recommend and earnestly pray the said Board to change its rule so the students of Taylor University may receive of this loan fund the same as other Methodist students."

GEORGE C. MORGAN, President;
C. C. AYRES, Secretary pro tem.

[The above resolution amends the resolution which was reconsidered, the original not appearing in these published Minutes.]

Memoirs.

JOHN W. MILLER.

John W. Miller was born near Dayton, Ohio, April 27, 1832, and departed from this life at the Memorial Home for the Aged at Warren, Indiana, April 28, 1914, aged eighty-two years and one day. He was the son of Isaac and Mary Miller. While he was yet a child the parents moved to a farm near Cambridge, Indiana. They were members of the Dunkard Church, but permitted their young son to attend a Methodist Sunday school, under which influence he was converted at the age of fourteen. When but nineteen years of age he felt the call to the ministry. After resisting the call for a time, he was first licensed to exhort in 1852, and in 1856 he was licensed to preach, joining the North Indiana Conference the same year. He was ordained deacon in 1859 by Bishop Morris, at Logansport, and elder at New Castle, by Bishop Janes, in 1861. His appointments were as follows: 1857, Anderson circuit; '58, Springfield; '59, Pierceton; '60-'61, Akron; '62, Massillon; '63, Monroeville; '64-'65, Leo; '66-'67, Angola; '68-'69, Leesburg; '70-'71, Osceola; '72, Oregon Conference; '73, North Indiana Conference, Bristol; '74, Jerome; '75-'76, New Waverly; '77, Montpelier; '78-'79, Warren; '80, Perrysburg; '81-'82, Williamsburg; '83-'84, Middletown. In the spring of 1884 he took a superannuated relation, which he held for twenty-nine years.

He was married to Rebecca N. Tousley, of Summit County, Ohio, May, 1859. To this union were born five children; of this number, only Mrs. Edward Urmston, of Lawrence, Massachusetts, survives. During the time he was in Oregon his wife died, and he then returned to the North Indiana Conference. In 1873 he was again united in marriage, choosing for a companion a sister to his first wife. To this union were born two children, both of them dying in early childhood. October 11, 1911, he was again bereft of his wife and companion; this broke up the home, and he entered the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged at Warren, Indiana, to spend the last days of his life. He was married the third time, in September, 1913, to Mrs. Ella Atkinson, who survives him. He was the last one of a large family, five brothers and five sisters having preceded him in death.

Brother Miller was a good minister, a good man, and was most highly respected. He was a whole-souled man, and was always cordial in his meeting with men. He served his Master when it required fortitude, patience, and perseverance. He maintained his interest in the church to the last, and his great concern was for the success of his Master's Kingdom.

Short funeral services were held in the chapel of the Memorial Home, in charge of M. S. Marble, District Superintendent, P. S. Hollopeter and W. W. Martin, assisting. Other ministers present were J. C. White, F. A. Hall, H. L. Liddle, F. M. Lacy, E. C. Fisher, M. L. Hardingham, J. F. Bailey, A. L. Hoover, W. Peck, H. Perry, C. M. Vaughtner, W. H. Jenkin, A. Cates, W. C. Asay, E. L. Jones. After the services in the church, his body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Arcadia, by the side of that of his wife. "Blessed are they that die in the Lord."

STEPHEN J. MELLINGER.

Rev. Stephen J. Mellinger, the son of Peter and Mariah Mellinger, was born in Piqua, Ohio, April 20, 1845, and died at his late home in Logansport, Indiana, June 30, 1914, in the seventieth year of his age. When he was one year old his father moved his family to Indiana, locating on a farm in Cass County, a few miles east of the city of Logansport. It was on this farm that Stephen grew to young manhood.

At the outbreaking of the Civil War, he heard the call of his country for service at the front in defense of the flag. A regiment of soldiers was being formed in Logansport, and though only a lad of sixteen years of age, he enlisted in Company B of the 46th Indiana Volunteers, and gave to his country nearly four years of hard service. He was with Grant at the siege of Vicksburg, and with Banks in the Red River campaign. A brother, who had enlisted with him in the same regiment, was killed in the decisive battle at Vicksburg. He remained in the service until the close of the war and was honorably discharged September 4, 1865, at Louisville, Kentucky. In the hard service at the front he had contracted some physical diseases that caused him frequent suffering during the remaining years of his life. He was a true patriot. He had offered his life upon the altar of his Fatherland. National issues were to him personal problems, and with great solicitation he followed the movements of his day.

After the battles for the Nation's defense had been fought, he returned again to his quiet life on the farm. In the autumn of 1872 he was married to Miss Amanda Skinner. This happy wedded life was early interrupted by the death of the wife, who lived only fifteen months after the marriage. Sometime following this sad event Mr. Mellinger took a short course in the Normal School at Valparaiso, Indiana, looking to the practice of law, but again returned to farm life.

He was again married, January 22, 1880, to Miss Martha J. Ferguson, who now survives him. Soon following, he engaged in business in the city of Logansport. Being an active Christian, he applied himself diligently to study at nights while conducting his business through the day, and prepared himself for a more devoted service of the Master.

He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1885, and was appointed to the Portland circuit, North Indiana Conference. His active ministry covers a period of about twenty years, during which time he served Portland circuit, Marion circuit, Mount Etna, Akron, Wabash circuit, Hometown, Silver Lake, Corunna, Kokomo circuit, and Atlanta. It was during his pastorate at Corunna that he suffered a nervous breakdown and was forced to retire from the work. After a few years' rest he again resumed the ministry, but three years later was compelled to retire permanently from the active work. During his retired relation to the Conference he was called frequently by his brethren to supply their charges. By the assistance of his devoted wife, who throughout his ministry so ably contributed to the success of his work, he held some of the most successful evangelistic services of his life since his retirement. Brother Mellinger loved the church to which he gave his life, and to preach the gospel of Christ was to him a joy and a delight. His messages were evangelistic, and it was to him a source of great satisfaction that more than a thousand souls had been brought into the Kingdom through his ministry. He had recently expressed the hope to his wife that he might at least hold one more revival service. This privilege, however, was not to be his, for in the silent watches of the early morning of June 30 the Master called him to his reward.

Of his father's family, four brothers survive him. They are Schuyler Mellinger, of New Castle; Grant Mellinger, of Peru; Theodore Mellinger, of Mexico, and Rev. Harry Mellinger, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Auburn, Indiana.

His sudden departure for his eternal home has left us all stricken with grief. To his most faithful and devoted wife he leaves many precious memories that will abide like the fragrance of flowers and comfort her in her lonely hours of waiting. And to all that have ever known him and received of his ministration he bequeaths the gracious inheritance of a Christian example. "Though absent, he yet speaketh." A life of such sterling religious integrity and large usefulness cannot suddenly close. We have the comforting realization that he has gone to be with the fathers. It may be said of him as of one of old, "He walked with God" and "he was not, for God took him."

The funeral service was held July 2, at 1:30 P. M., in Market Street Methodist Episcopal Church, with which he and his wife had affiliated during their retirement. Rev. H. L. Overdeer, the pastor, being absent from the city, Rev. J. Albert Sumwalt, of the Broadway Church, was in charge, and was assisted by the District Superintendent, Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, and the following ministers: H. N. Herrick, John C. White, E. C. Dunn, and W. S. Stewart. A large number of the brethren of the ministry were present. Interment was made in the Bethel Cemetery, near the home of his youth.

—J. ALBERT SUMWALT.

MARY LASH.

At three o'clock Monday morning, July 13, there came to an end the long, brave, and patient struggle of an unusual character against bodily infirmities. One is almost at a loss at first to know which to admire most—the remarkable vitality of the physical body or the beauty of the spirit which the physical temple so long encased. But Picton was right when he said, "When I am asked if I have a soul, I say, 'No, I am a soul: I have a body.'"

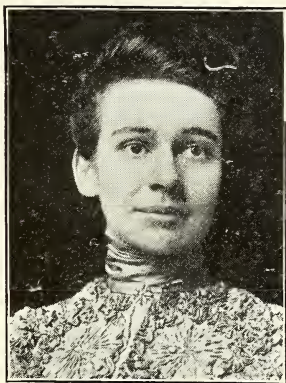

Mrs. Mary Lash was a noble soul, and that soul possessed a body of unusual powers. She was born near Columbus, Ohio, February 26, 1839, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Baker. At the age of fourteen she was converted and came into the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was a faithful member militant for over seventy years.

In 1852 her parents moved to Warsaw, Indiana, and it was there that Miss Baker first came to know William Lash, whom she married November 25, 1855. Her husband entered the Conference in 1866, and was successively stationed at New Corydon, Deerfield, Antioch, Springfield, Inwood, Allen, Harlan, Coesse, Roanoke, Milford, Osceola, and Elkhart circuit. It was largely because of her invalidism that the regular work had to be relinquished and residence taken in Elkhart, which continued until death.

That she resisted the ravages of disease so many years was a marvel to physicians, who repeatedly declared that vitality was exhausted and that death might occur at any time. Her last critical illness covered a period of seven weeks, cold developing into pneumonia, during which time she bore intense suffering with great fortitude and patience, just as she had endured the sufferings of years. Scarcely able to leave her home, an invalid for practically half her life, Mrs. Lash retained a cheerful disposition and confident trust in God. If one word could characterize her more than another, it was patience. It was her constant prayer and passion. Her patience was not merely a certain type of acquiescence, passive and resistless, but an endurance that was at once brave and hopeful.

A son, Joseph Minor Lash, was killed on the Lake Shore crossing at Osceola, May 3, 1913. His death was a severe blow to his aged parents. Surviving Mrs. Lash are her husband, very much enfeebled by his eighty years; a son, George E., of Elkhart; a daughter, Mrs. John A. Ervin, of Sansac, South Dakota, who for almost four years has been separated from her own family, caring for her parents; and one brother, Joseph

S. Baker, of Warsaw. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon, July 15, conducted by her pastor, R. J. Wade, assisted by R. A. Morrison. The funeral discourse was presented by Somerville Light. Interment was at Warsaw, A. G. Neal in charge.

LENA NIXON TRAVIS.

Lena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Nixon, was born at Newport, Indiana, May 8, 1874, and departed from this life from the parsonage home in Fort Wayne on Sunday evening, July 19, 1914, just as the sun was tinting the western sky with gold and glory.

After finishing the public schools in her native city, she attended Coates College, and this was the beginning of the larger life into which she has been constantly growing all these years. It was in her college life that, during a revival meeting held in Centenary Church, Terre Haute, she made a definite decision to surrender her life to Jesus Christ, and there and then began that devoted Christian life which has made her such a power for good everywhere she has lived since; for though much of her sweetness of character and goodness of life may be accounted for by her natural graces, yet it was because she knew Jesus Christ that she became such a queen.

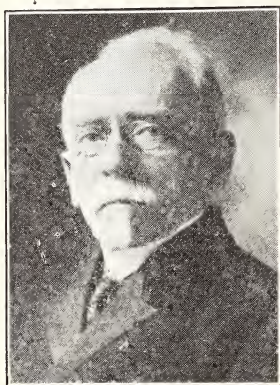

It was while in college, too, that she met the Rev. C. Claude Travis, to whom she was married October 16, 1900, while he was pastor at Saint Paul Methodist Episcopal Church in Indianapolis. Later they lived four years at South Bend and three years at Mishawaka, from which place they came to Wayne Street Church, Fort Wayne, a little more than five years ago. Of the immediate family there survive the husband and two little daughters, Mary Louise and Josephine; other relatives are the father, a banker at Newport: two brothers, Victor and Burnett Nixon, both of Newport, and two sisters, Mrs. Dr. U. G. Galloway, of South Bend, and Mrs. O. D. Travis, of Terre Haute.

Mrs. Travis was an admirable woman in whom the finest graces of Christian womanhood were most pronounced, and her personal traits and her kindly disposition were such as to endear her to all who were fortunate enough to know her. As a pastor's wife and parsonage queen she maintained a high ideal; the secret of her life was revealed in a sentence often upon her lips during her last long sickness, "We must be helpful to folks." She was actively interested in the work of the various societies of the church and the literary and social organizations of the communities where she lived. Always her influence and fellowship were an inspiring uplift. Her death brings a deep sense of personal loss to a very wide circle of friends, whose prayers and sympathy are turned towards Brother Travis and the two little daughters to-day.

Her home life was ideal, her Christian life was useful, her death was victorious, her crowning we feel was certain. "Blessed are those that die in the Lord," but more blessed are those that live in the Lord. Funeral services were held in the Wayne Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Fort Wayne, Tuesday afternoon, July 21, in charge of the District Superintendent, Rev. J. A. Beatty, assisted by several members of the Conference. The next morning the body was taken to the old home in Newport, where services were held, after which the interment was made in the family lot at Newport.

—W. A. GREST.

JESSE BOWMAN YOUNG.

Jesse Bowman Young was born at Berwick, Pennsylvania, July 5, 1844. His father, Rev. Jared Harrison Young, was a Methodist minister of German descent, and his mother, Sarah Bowman, was of German and Scotch-English descent, and came from a long line of Methodist ancestors.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he was attending Dickinson Seminary, at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, but did not return to school in the fall of '61, as he was planning to go into the army as soon as he could gain the consent of his widowed mother to spare her only son. This he secured when opportunity offered of accompanying his uncle, General S. M. Bowman, then major in the 4th Illinois Cavalry. He served as private secretary and orderly under him until June 1, 1862, without pay or without mustering in on account of being under age and size. That summer he returned to Berwick and assisted in recruiting the 84th Pennsylvania Volunteers, and October 4 was commissioned second lieutenant in that regiment. He was frequently promoted until, in the Gettysburg campaign, he was assistant provost marshal of the Second Division, Third Army Corps. In November that year he was assigned to duty in the office of recorder of examinations for officers at Washington, and there remained until May 1, 1864, when he was commissioned captain, serving as aide to General Silas Casey. In after years he wrote his war experiences into a volume entitled, What a Boy Saw in the Army.

In 1866 he graduated from Dickinson Seminary, and in 1868 from Dickinson College. In college he was a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities.

After graduating in 1868, he was received on trial into the Central Pennsylvania Conference and sent to York Spring circuit, where he was pastor for three years, and then he was sent to Gettysburg, where he served the limit (three years), and in the study of that parsonage (where a cannon ball still lodged that was thrown there during the cannonading of the battle) he prepared that lecture, which he delivered a thousand times, "Echoes from Round-top; the Story of a Great Battle." Then followed three years at Curwensville, three years at Carlisle, and five years at Grace Church, Harrisburg. Next came a four-year pastorate at Grand Avenue Church, Kansas City, Missouri, after which he was the efficient editor of the Central Christian Advocate at Saint Louis. In his editorial work Dr. Young was clear, inspiring, and brave. He was not afraid to speak his convictions on every great problem that faced the church. In his earlier ministry he was an enthusiastic evangelistic pastor; as an editor his title should be a "Defender of the Faith." His work as an editor was such that when his death was announced the church papers all paid glowing tribute to his work and worth, though it had been fifteen years since he closed his work with the editorship. In 1900 he was appointed pastor of the Walnut Hills Church, in Cincinnati, where he spent eight happy, fruitful years. From there he went to Snyder Memorial Church, in Jacksonville, Florida, where he labored two years effectively, and then transferred to the North Indiana Conference and served the First Church, Bluffton, for one year, endearing himself to the church and the Conference as few men have been able to do in much longer time. In 1913 he retired to live with his son in Chicago. At the time of his death he was about to take up the work of supplying the editorship of the Northwestern Christian Advocate during the temporary absence of the editor, and it so chanced that the last word from his pen was a tribute in memory of the late Rev. Dr. W. B. Palmore, a Confederate veteran and editor of the Saint Louis Christian Advocate.

Dr. Young was married December 22, 1870, to Lucy Minshall Spottswood, who survives him with their son, Jared W. Young, and the four daughters. His last public appearance was at a patriotic service on the night of July 5, his birthday, when, rounding out his threescore years and ten, he delivered for the last time his lecture on Gettysburg; he closed his lecture with these sentences:

"Here rest the defenders of the flag, but not here alone. Along the Potomac, the Cumberland, and the James, underneath the palmetto and the pine, by the far-away coast and beneath the blue waves of the sea, under decorated monuments or in the unmarked trenches that furrow a thousand battlefields, sleep the Union dead. They have fought their last battle, made their last charge, gone on their last campaign. They rest secure from alarms; the enemy's bullets can never disturb their slumber; the frenzy of the strife will never stir their pulses; the last tattoo has sounded. Let them sleep on till the last great reveille shall summon them to the final roll call of the resurrection. Comrades of the armies of the dead, as we call up the scenes made resplendent in all history by your heroism and valor, we can feel again your shadowy presence with us on earth. We marched and messed and fought together. We shared the same shelter-tent, endured the same hardships, drank from the same canteen! Comrades, ye are not dead. In the pages of history, in the prosperity of the land you rescued from ruin, in the monuments that tell where your dust reposes, in the hearts of a grateful people, in the roll-book of the world's noblest heroes, ye shall live forever! Brave men, illustrious soldiers, loved companions, hail and farewell!"

Dr. Young died at Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, July 30, 1914, and funeral services were conducted in Wabash Avenue Church, Chicago, in charge of the George H. Thomas Post, Grand Army of the Republic, under Dr. W. J. Libberton. Bishop McDowell preached, and Dr. T. P. Frost, of First Church, Evanston, assisted in the service. The Rock River Conference Quartet sang, and his body was laid to rest with a soldier's honors in the Rose Hill Cemetery at Chicago, Illinois.

ELIZABETH THORNE COMSTOCK.*

It would be hard to find a more perfect tribute, couched in simpler yet very significant words, than those with which the ancient writer refers to Enoch, "He walked with God and was not, for God took him." Anyone might properly covet such a summary of his earthly journey. To those of her own household and to the circle of her friends, these words seem appropriately to sum up Sister Comstock's life.

The bare, outstanding events of any life can be recorded in a few brief sentences. So it was with her who this year has passed from among us. Elizabeth Thorne was born in Belmont County, Ohio, April 30, 1823. In 1852 she was married to Thomas Comstock, at that time a successful business man of Liberty Mills, Indiana. Later, when he felt a call to preach, she went with him to Evanston, Illinois, where he prepared himself for his chosen vocation. Then began her co-partnership in the labor and service of the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with pastorates at Elkhart, Goshen, Warsaw, Wabash, and Richmond, at which place her companion bade her goodbye until they should meet again about the throne of God. Twice was the period of the pastorate broken into while her husband assumed the presidency of Fort Wayne College. For forty-two years following her husband's death it was her lot to live on in this world, continuing the unordained ministry for which she was so well adapted. Most of this time was spent with her son on his farm, four and a half miles from Bristol.

Her health and sight began to fail very noticeably about two years ago. At that time she went to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Seth Manning, who lived on an adjoining farm, to make her home. Her last illness continued over a period of more than six months, during which her every want was supplied by her two daughters. She gave evidence to a very sweet and beautiful Christian experience. Her confidence in God's love and care never wavered. The spirit left its earthly tenement June 21, 1914.

The funeral service was held at the home of her daughter, with the Rev. C. B. Croxall conducting the simple service. The following day the body was taken to Liberty Mills, where it was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the family burying ground.

CORA CREMEAN.

Cora Cremean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dilsaver, was born in Marion Township, Allen County, Ohio, January 30, 1878, and fell asleep in Jesus Friday morning, October 30, 1914, at 8:25 o'clock. Death came to her in the Saint Paul parsonage, which she was so much interested in building. She is survived by her husband, the Rev. F. H. Cremean, pastor of the Saint Paul Methodist Episcopal Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana. She also leaves the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dilsaver; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Schell and Mrs. Dollie Dulebohn, and one brother, Charles, all of Elida, Ohio.

*The Secretary of the Conference was unable to secure a photograph from which to have a cut made.

For over two years and a half Mrs. Cremean had been a great sufferer from that dread disease, tuberculosis. She made an heroic struggle for life, knowing that soon death would be inevitable. For seventeen long weeks the crisis was expected daily. During all these days of sickness and suffering she bore it bravely, having always that absolute confidence in Christ her Saviour. Looking at death as her "Visored Friend," she even prayed that, if it could be God's will, he should come quickly.

Death to her was the re-embracing of those whom she "had loved long since and lost awhile." She often exclaimed, "O, if I could fall asleep just now and open my eyes in heaven, how glad I should be!" To her death had no terrors. So several weeks preceding her death she made final arrangements for her departure.

Her education, after completing the common school course of the county, was received in the high school, Elida. She spent three years teaching in these schools. In this work she was efficient and successful. She was firm in discipline and thorough in laying a foundation for those entrusted to her care.

Her religious life was definitely begun under the ministry of Rev. Leatherman, in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Elida. From that time to the hour of her death she lived an active and aggressive Christian life. She was thus trained up in the Sunday school and the church life of the community.

She was united in marriage with Mr. Cremean, October 27, 1897. In the fall of 1899 she and her husband entered the Christian ministry. This work lay dear to her heart, for from childhood it had been her supreme desire. Needless to say, to those who knew her, that no sacrifice was too great nor work too hard in the service of Christ the Master. She had one aim and one object in life: that was to be well-pleasing unto him and to be ready at his call.

Being also a gifted and talented speaker, she assumed a large portion of the responsibility of the public services. At times, when the occasion demanded, she filled the appointments of her husband. The last public address given by her was the closing one of the "Win-My-Chum Week," Sunday evening, November 16, 1913. The subject chosen was, "Am I My Father's Messenger?" She was vitally interested in every phase of church life. No department escaped her attention. If one lay closer to her heart than another, it was the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. In the social activities of the church she was a leader. She always had a large and intimate acquaintance. To her was given the happy faculty of making friends of the young people, cherishing and holding them close to her heart. In the home her life was admirable and praiseworthy. Unselfish by nature, she gave her best. In her largeness of life she appreciated the smallest ministration of friendly hands. Out of the fullness of her heart she had a smile and a cheerful word for each one.

After spending some time in the active ministry in the field, Rev. Cremean was called to a professorship in the theological department in Central College, Huntington, Indiana. It was in this place that the home was bereft of all the children. God gave four children to brighten the home for a short time. Eugene died in infancy. Francis Lorin, aged eight years and eight months; Louis Beatrice, four years and a half; Harold J., one year and eight months—all of whom were taken in one week; death in these cases was due to scarlet fever. The death of the children necessitated a change for the bereaved mother. Rev. Cremean resigned his position in the college. Then, on the 1st of October, 1911, they began life anew in a new field—Fort Wayne. For Mrs. Cremean it was to be very brief.

In the last few weeks of her illness, when no longer able to take part in the family devotion, she would choose, following the reading of the Scripture, some song expressing her own spiritual condition. Being of an intensely religious nature, the one oftenest chosen to express her own submission and faith was:

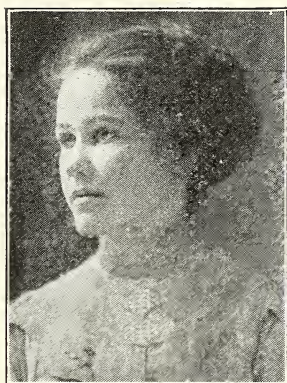

"What though the way be lonely,
And dark the shadows fall;
I know where'er it leadeth,
My Father planned it all.

"The sun may shine to-morrow,
The shadows break and flee;
'Twill be the way he chooses,
The Father's plan for me.

"He guides my halting footsteps
Along the weary way,
For well he knows the pathway
Will lead to endless day.

"A day of light and gladness,
On which no shade will fall;
'Tis this at last awaits me—
My Father planned it all."

On Sunday afternoon, November 1, 1914, at 2 o'clock, in the Saint Paul Methodist Episcopal Church, Fort Wayne, the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. A. Beatty, District Superintendent, assisted by the pastors of the Methodist churches of the city, Revs. Guild, Griest, Hill, and Travis, and the Rev. Laudeman, First Evangelical Church, representing the Ministerial Association of the city. Following this service, the funeral party left for the parents' home and her birthplace at Elida. On Monday afternoon, in the Methodist Episcopal church in Elida, service was held, Dr. J. A. Beatty officiating, and being assisted by the pastor, Rev. Hook. These services were attended by a large number of sympathetic friends. The body was laid to rest in the near-by Greenlawn Cemetery.

CATHERINE C. WINSLOW.

Catherine Winslow, the daughter of O. M. and Edith Bevington, and the second child of a family of fourteen children, was born in Montpelier, Indiana, September 23, 1892.

She passed on before from the parsonage home in Liberty Mills, Indiana, December 4, 1914, aged twenty-two years, two months, eleven days.

On November 5, 1913, she was united in holy matrimony to Rev. Leslie Winslow, and went the same day to take up the duties of a minister's wife by the side of her husband, who was supplying the Warren circuit. In April, 1914, her husband was received on trial into the North Indiana Conference, and they were appointed to the Liberty Mills charge.

Being early taught the principles of the Christian life, she has from early childhood been a follower of the Lord Jesus, and has been a devoted worker in the Sunday school, choir, and other departments of the church of her choice. In this work she was especially adapted to assist her husband in the music and young people's societies, as well as, by her sweet spirit of adaptability, to be a great inspiration to all other departments of the church, also impartially endearing herself to those of other churches.

Among those to whom our sympathy goes out upon this occasion are her bereaved husband, her father, mother, five brothers, seven sisters, as also her host of personal friends.

While our hearts are bleeding in the agonies of untold sorrow, let us look to God, who is the source of all our comfort, and remember that she with her little infant daughter have gone where their sweet spirits will bear loving world-tokens into the presence of the heavenly Father and there await our coming.

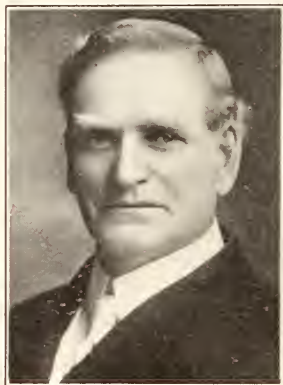

Her funeral was held in the Fairmount Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. B. Kendall, who had married them, preached the sermon, while the pastor, Rev. J. J. Fred, Dr. M. S. Marble, and other ministers assisted.

REV. WILLIAM RAPER WONES.

Between the 18th of August, 1845, and the twelfth day of December, 1914, lies the record of a useful life. William Raper Wones was the son of John and Nancy Wones, whose farm home was near Newson Chapel, a few miles from Saint Paris, Ohio. At this church he attended Sunday school and church services. Here he grew to young manhood. Then came troublous times and the Nation trembled under the pressure of approaching storms. At the age of fifteen he joined the "Dialton Greys"—a company of Home Guards—and drilled for service. In youthful years he enlisted under the flag—following three brothers who were already at the front. Under awful exposure his health failed and, to his dismay and to his lasting regret, he was obliged to return home. Such a spirit of patriotism was his all through his life.

Joining the Methodist church at Fletcher, Ohio, he soon received an unmistakable call to the ministry. After attending Xenia College, he joined the North Indiana Conference. He had an unbroken ministry of thirty-five years. In this period he served Raysville, Trenton, Monroeville, New Paris, Garrett, (Trinity) Fort Wayne, (Market Street) Logansport, Nappanee, Wolcottville, Bourbon, and Pierceton. Since his retirement, in 1911, he resided in Warsaw. He was an industrious, informed, religious, orthodox Methodist preacher.

He built seven churches and repaired four; built one parsonage and repaired four. Paid four troublesome church debts, and in a successful ministry received two thousand members into the church. Everywhere material interests prospered, benevolences increased, and spiritual life was strengthened.

In early manhood he married Miss Amanda Miller. Two sons, Oliver and William Raper, preceded him in death. Three daughters—Mrs. Earl Kieffe, of Iowa Falls; Mrs. Marvin Coppes, of Nappanee, and Miss Marie Wones, a teacher in the Mishawaka schools—survive him. Mrs. Amanda Wones died at the time of their pastorate at Wolcottville.

On January 15, 1902, he married Miss Dora Tate, who survives him, with twin daughters, Carolyn and Roselyn.

A man of faith, a man of prayer, a brother beloved has gone from our midst. Funeral services were held at the Warsaw Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor, A. G. Neal, and the District Superintendent, Dr. Somerville Light. Revs. A. J. Carey, E. L. Semans, J. S. Cain, and J. B. Cook assisted in the services, and Rev. Earle Naftzger sang favorite songs. About twenty members of the Conference were present.

The concluding funeral rites at Newson Chapel, Ohio, were conducted by Rev. G. M. McNeely, pastor at Northampton, Ohio. Here, near his childhood home; here, where parents and loved one sleep; here, in this sacred, beautiful ground sleeps William Raper Wones.

JOHN B. FORD.

On January 18, 1915, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. J. Harris, in Oakland, Kansas, the spirit of this noble man of God passed from its earthly dwelling to abide in the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. The last years of his life were spent in deep affliction, and the mind, once so keen and powerful, could no longer respond to the demands of life. Yet, amid it all, even when memory had completely lapsed, and when even his own children were unrecognized by him, he was evidently conscious that he was a minister of the gospel. On his face there was always a smile, his manner was dignified, his language chaste and gracious.

John B. Ford was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, July 31, 1835. Early in his life his disposition toward the ministry of the gospel was manifested. He was converted at an early age and became active in the preparation necessary for his life-work. He began preaching in 1858, and was admitted to the ministry on trial in the West Virginia Conference in 1859, and in due time received ordination in the same Conference. On September 7, 1865, he was married to Miss Josephine Horton, and with his bride moved to Georgetown, Ohio, to which charge Brother Ford had been appointed. Together they toiled faithfully in the arduous labor of the Methodist itinerancy. They knew the hardships and the joys of the "circuit," and amid the mountaineers of Tennessee they learned the lessons of faith and rugged persistence which served them so well in later years.

In June, 1866, those trying days of our Nation's reconstruction, Brother Ford was appointed to Knoxville, Tennessee, where it is said there was neither church nor congregation. In four years the result of his ministry showed a substantial church structure and a congregation of about four hundred.

Brother Ford was one of the men who early saw the possibilities which lay in the Sunday-school work, and rendered efficient service in helping to lay the foundation upon which is built that most effective department of the church to-day, the Sunday school. After coming to Kansas, Dr. Ford served acceptably the churches at Independence, Garnett, Burlington, and others.

Sister Ford departed this life June 20, 1905. Four children also have passed over the river, while four remain; they are Mrs. B. J. Harris, Mrs. G. G. Fogle, Mrs. C. E. Meyers, and Rev. J. K. Ford.

Shortly after the death of his life companion, Brother Ford began to fail in health. Hope was entertained that his affliction might be only temporary, but it was soon evident that his day of active service was over. The last hours were those of unconsciousness, and he sank very quietly into that great change which the world calls death. Yes, he sleeps in the night of death, but the sky is clear, the stars are shining brightly, and yonder the daybeams are breaking and the morning will be glorious for him, for he rests in Christ.

"The stars shall fade away, the sun himself
Grow dim with age, and nature sink in years,
But thou shalt flourish in immortal youth,
Unhurt amidst the war of elements,
The wreck of matter, and the crush of worlds."

The funeral services were held January 24, at the Oakland Methodist Episcopal Church, Topeka, Kansas. The pastor, A. E. Peterson, spoke briefly from the text, 2 Cor. 5. 1. He was assisted in the service by Rev. E. E. Urner, who read the Scripture lesson from 1 Cor. 15. Dr. Edwin Locke related some of the experiences of the departed brother and gave a very touching appreciation of services rendered by him.

Dr. Ford serves no more in the ranks of the church militant, but the church triumphant is the richer for his coming. He was a good man, a true husband and father, a loyal Christian, and a stirring and successful preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ. The stars of his crown will be many.

SEGES CAROLINE WOOLPERT.

Seges Caroline Orum was born July 8, 1830, at Winchester, Ohio, and died at her late residence in Greenspring, Ohio, at 8:15 o'clock Monday morning, February 1, 1915, aged eighty-four years, six months and twenty-four days.

In early youth she moved with her parents to Indiana and took up her residence at Mexico, Miami County. On November 30, 1848, she was joined in holy wedlock with Rev. Hosea Woolpert, who departed this life at his home in Greenspring, Ohio, Friday, April 5, 1907, aged eighty-one years, three months and eleven days.

She was the mother of twelve children, ten of whom survive her. Early in life she was powerfully converted to God and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and remained a consistent member of the same until death. Her conversion, being positive and pronounced, was always clearly defined and assuring, a great joy to herself and an inspiration and comfort to her children, who mourn not as others who have no hope. She knew the often indefinable and inexpressible experiences of the wife of a Methodist itinerant. Her husband being in the active ministry and a member of the North Indiana Annual Conference (it having often been said of him that he had seen more souls born into the Kingdom of God than any other member of his Conference), she entered uncomplainingly and joyfully into the work, and by prayer (in which she was specially gifted) and song and praise, she was a source of great inspiration and helpfulness in the work of the Master.

For some weeks preceding her demise she was in a seemingly unconscious state, but during her last illness, as frequently since the death of her husband, she has not only expressed to her children abiding faith in God, but an eager desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Her bright, unclouded Christian experience is a comfort, a consolation, and a joy to those of her children now bereft.

There remains on the nether shore to mourn her departure, ten children, three sons-in-law, three daughters-in-law, seventeen grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. The funeral services in memory of the deceased were held at her late residence Wednesday, February 3, 1915, at 10:30 A. M., Rev. F. S. Fancher officiating. Interment in Greenspring Cemetery. Among the relatives present from a distance were: D. C. Woolpert, Dayton, Ohio; Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Read, Tipton, Indiana.

H. N. HERRICK.

Horace Nelson Herrick was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, June 17, 1846. He was the son of William and Ruth Herrick. He quietly fell asleep in Jesus at his home in Kokomo, Indiana, February 15, 1915. He was first married to Mary E. Erick, June 28, 1868. To them were born two children—Bessie Ruth, who is the wife of Rev. J. M. Canse, of Bellingham, Washington, and William V. Herrick, who is a teacher in Vancouver, Washington. The death of Mrs. Herrick occurred October 16, 1905, and he was again married to Mrs. Sarah J. Kemp, May 15, 1907, who survives him.

He was graduated from Northwestern University and Garrett Biblical Institute in 1880. He was honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity from DePauw University. Dr. Herrick was brought up by pious, devoted parents, and became a Christian while he was a child, when he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was deeply conscious of a call to the ministry, and yielded himself to this call in 1868, when he became a member of the North Indiana Conference. He served the following charges: Alexandria, New Corner (Gaston), Muncie circuit, Ridgeville, Hartford City. He then spent six years in school at Evanston, Illinois, and on his return he served Winchester, Knightstown, Goshen, President of Fort Wayne College, Anderson, Muncie District, (First Church) Wabash, (Broadway) Logansport, Kokomo District, and retired in 1910.

He was a member of the General Missionary Conference at Cleveland in 1896, at Chicago in 1900, and at Los Angeles in 1904, and served the General Missionary Committee of the church for eight years. He was a marked success as a Presiding Elder and District Superintendent, introducing many new and original features into the work of this office that are now looked on as a part of the necessary program. He was the first Presiding Elder to hold one-day missionary conventions on each charge in the district. He originated the apportionment record that is printed each year in our Year Book. His long service as a Presiding Elder enabled him to become intimately acquainted with most of the preachers and many of the laymen of the Conference. To know him and to come in touch with his genial and kindly spirit, was to love him. He was one of the best-beloved men of the Conference, and no man swayed a greater or a more wholesome influence than he.

The last years of his life were spent in gathering material for and writing a history of the North Indiana Conference. He was peculiarly fitted for this important work, and took great delight in its progress. It was a great disappointment to him that he was not able to finish this work.

Dr. Herrick's home life was most delightful. His family was always on his heart, and his spoken prayers for his loved ones were always tenderly expressed. A devoted husband, a loving father, and a brother that was constant and true.

No man could have been more loyal to his church and Conference than he, and he supported them both with great liberality. For many years he had supported a native preacher in China. His ambition was to preach as many years in China, by this means, as he had preached in America.

His funeral took place in Grace Church, Kokomo, on Thursday afternoon, February 18. Bishop D. H. Moore, L. A. Beeks, C. U. Wade, W. D. Parr, J. A. Sprague, C. H. Brown, M. S. Marble, C. E. Line, P. J. Albright, and the writer had part in the service. There were fifty-four of the brethren of the Conference present at the funeral. The Sunday-school class of which he was teacher acted as pallbearers. He was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Winchester, Indiana.

—B. S. HOLLOPETER.

HENRY BRIDGE.

Rev. Henry Bridge died at his home, surrounded by the devoted wife and children, on the sixteenth day of February, 1915. He was born in Stark County, Ohio, July 22, 1840, and in his early boyhood moved to Indiana with his parents. He was born from above and became a devoted and faithful member of the church. For a number of years he practiced law and taught school, after having attended school at Oberlin and Otterbein Universities.

In 1880 he received a call to preach and, joining the North Indiana Conference, gave full proof of his ministry by faithful work in the following charges: Arcola, Poneto, Coesse, Churubusco, Ossian, (Saint Paul)

Fort Wayne, Mentone, Warren, Butler, and Talma. In recent years he was not a rugged man physically, yet few men ever gave themselves more unreservedly to the work of the church and the Kingdom of God.

Nature made Brother Bridge chaste and pure in thought and word, never forgetting for a moment that he was a Christian gentleman. He excelled in the management of his private business. Everything was turned to good account. There was no waste. This gave him the ability and he had the willingness to use his means and talent for the upbuilding of the Kingdom, even through the years of his superannuation. Through his splendid organization a number of good churches were erected, among them being the splendid churches at Talma and Warren. He made liberal donations to DePauw, Taylor, and the Old People's Home, and he was never happier than while in the past year he gave counsel and advice to the pastor in the erection of the new church at Huntington. Almost the last act of his life, while in his sickness, he gave $25 to the Sunday school for a silk flag to inculcate patriotism in the children and love for Old Glory, under which he had fought as a soldier of the Republic, and $50 to endow two pulpit chairs, which are to be draped for thirty days upon the death of a pastor of the church in Huntington, or ex-pastor, whether effective or a superannuated member of the North Indiana Conference, which he continued to love to the end.

As a minister of the gospel he was strong as an evangelist; he loved the doctrine of atonement, and ever lifted up the Christ before a sinful world. He preached thoughtful and helpful sermons, though he did not regard himself as a great preacher; but often great revivals came to the churches which he served, and the converts were so impressed with the church obligations that they were received into the church knowing the full meaning of personal forgiveness of sin.

The people followed him because they believed in him. He was strong because he believed he was sent of God to preach. He loved his brethren in the ministry and in the church. He was a friend and helper to the pastor where he worshiped, and loyally supported him in the work of the Kingdom.

He leaves a widow, four sons, one daughter, and two brothers. One son, Rev. U. S. A. Bridge, is an honored member of this Conference. Funeral services were held in the new First Church, Huntington, Indiana, conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. F. Smith, assisted by M. S. Marble, District Superintendent; J. W. Cain, B. S. Holloper, J. A. Beatty, and H. C. Harmon. Fifteen other ministerial brethren and a large number of friends attended the funeral services. He was buried in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery at Huntington, Indiana.

LESLIE A. HALL AND WIFE, BESSIE M. HALL.

Leslie A. Hall, son of W. D. and Sophronia Hall, was born on a farm near Waterloo, Gallia County, Ohio, November 8, 1887. His wife, Bessie M. Zerbe Hall, daughter of George W. and Lydia Alice Zerbe, was born at Foresman, Newton County, Indiana, June 28, 1888.

For some years previous to Brother Hall's entrance as a student in Rio Grande College, in Ohio, he was a teacher in the public schools in the country where he was raised, and later in Douglas County, Illinois. After his work in college, he entered Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Illinois, further preparing himself for the ministry, to which work he believed himself divinely called. In the spring of 1913 he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was stationed at Miami and Anoka. The next year, in the spring of 1914, he was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference, and stationed at West Middleton. It was in the winter of 1913, on December 18, that he was united in marriage to Bessie M. Zerbe, of Tiosa, Indiana. For several years Mrs. Hall had resided at Argos, Indiana, where her father conducted a jewelry store. When but a child she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Mount Ayr, Indiana. She grew to womanhood under the influences of the church, and lived an exemplary and devout Christian life. To know her was to love her, and when she became the wife of a minister of the gospel, she was a queen in his home, inspiring, lovingly advising, and assisting in every possible way. Brother and Sister Hall had entered with great joy upon a life full of promise, and already had been crowned with the Master's favor and success.

They were greatly beloved by their people, and were rapidly growing in favor with the ministers of the Conference. Brother Hall was a splendid student and a consistent workman; at the time of his entrance into Conference he easily completed two years' work in one. The ability of these happy young people, their evident success and favor with the church, promised a long life of useful service for the Master.

But it was not to be. On the afternoon of February 18, 1915, while they were on their way to the funeral of Dr. H. N. Herrick, one of the brethren of the Conference, their buggy in which they were traveling was struck by a locomotive, at the Clover Leaf crossing on Markland Avenue, in Kokomo, and Brother Hall was instantly killed. About two hours later Sister Hall died from the effects of her injuries. Our heavenly Father's plans are many times far beyond human comprehension, and they are in these sudden and sad deaths.

Brother Hall leaves a father and mother, seven brothers, and one sister. Sister Hall leaves father and mother and two sisters.

The funeral was conducted from the Brethren Church at Tiosa, by their District Superintendent, B. S. Hollopeter, assisted by three of the brethren of the Conference, and also by Rev. Berry, of the Northwest Indiana Conference. Burial was made in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery at Richland Center.

REV. W. M. VANSLYKE.

Memoir of Rev. W. M. VanSlyke who died March 30, 1915, will appear next year, as data could not be secured in time for publication in the present year book. Secretary.

Appointment Record.

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1915, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated Sy., Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired. SECRETARY.

Explanatory—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record, it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge.

That was characteristically up-to-date action that was taken by the North Indiana Conference when a unanimous standing vote was taken that every pastor in the Conference subscribe to WORLD OUTLOOK, and that each should secure at least five more subscribers during the year.

One hundred and seventy-three men signed subscription blanks.

That action puts this Conference in a class by itself, and in order that the preachers may make good on their promise for five more subscriptions, this statement is addressed to the laymen. If you want to see a copy before sending in your $1.50, write to

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements :

First—The instruction should be thorough.

Second—The equipment should be generous.

Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.

Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.

Fifth—The Christian influences should be positive and attractive.

Sixth—The charges should be reasonable.

They will find every requirement fully met at

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE OFFERS THE FOLLOWING COURSES:

Regular College and Preparatory Courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science.

Special courses in Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science.

Why should any Illinois young woman go East to a Woman's College?

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized, the college would not be able to take care of more than half the applications.
